SUMMARY ANALYSIS

CS/CS/HB 341 passed the House on March 9, 2022, as CS/CS/SB 692 as amended. The Senate concurred in the House amendment to the Senate bill and subsequently passed the bill as amended on March 10, 2022.

Currently, the terms "vagina" and "vaginal" are not defined under Florida law, but are used to describe prohibited sexual conduct in various sections of law. Without a definition to specify what the Legislature intends to be included in the meaning of the terms, determining a meaning is left to the courts. Currently, the Florida District Courts of Appeals (DCA) have conflicting opinions on the definition of the term "vagina." Specifically, the Second and Fourth DCAs have held that the term "vagina" has a specific anatomical meaning, and that it includes only the internal canal between the vulva and the uterus, while the Fifth DCA has held the term "vagina" includes the entire vulva area not just the internal passageway. As such, the lack of a statutory definition for the term may lead to disparate outcomes for the same conduct, based on the circuit in which the offense occurs.

The terms "vagina" and "vaginal" are currently used in the following sections of law without being specifically defined:

- Section 365.161, F.S., which prohibits certain obscene telephone communications;
- Section 491.0112, F.S., relating to sexual misconduct by a psychotherapist;
- Section 775.0847, F.S., relating to the possession or promotion of certain images of child pornography;
- Section 794.011, F.S., relating to sexual battery;
- Section 794.05, F.S., relating to unlawful sexual activity with certain minors;
- Section 796.07, F.S., relating to the prohibition of prostitution;
- Section 800.04, F.S., relating to lewd or lascivious offenses upon or in the presence of a person under 16;
- Section 825.1025, F.S., relating to lewd or lascivious offenses upon or in the presence of an elderly or disabled person;
- Section 827.071, F.S., relating to sexual performance by a child;
- Section 847.001, F.S., which provides definitions relating to obscenity;
- Section 872.06, F.S., relating to abuse of a dead human body;
- Section 944.35, F.S., relating to malicious battery and sexual misconduct by a correctional facility employee; and
- Section 951.27, F.S., relating to blood testing of inmates charged with a sexual offense.

The bill amends each of the above-listed statutes relating to prohibited sexual conduct to replace the terms "vagina" or "vaginal" with the terms "female genital" or "female genitals," and to provide that "female genitals" include the labia minora, labia majora, clitoris, vulva, hymen, and vagina.

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference determined the bill will have a positive indeterminate impact on the prison population by replacing the terms "vagina" and "vaginal" with the newly defined term "female genitals," which may capture more conduct than under current law.

The bill was approved by the Governor on June 3, 2022, ch. 2022-165, L.O.F., and will become effective on October 1, 2022.

I. SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION

A. EFFECT OF CHANGES:

Background

Under Florida law, the terms “vagina” and “vaginal” are used within the descriptions and definitions of numerous prohibited sexual activities, however, the term is not statutorily defined. Currently, several of Florida’s District Courts of Appeal (DCA) have released conflicting opinions on the meaning of the term “vagina.” The Second and Fourth DCAs have held that the term “vagina” has a specific anatomical meaning, and that it includes only the internal canal between the vulva and the uterus,<sup>1</sup> while the Fifth DCA has held that the term “vagina” includes the entire vulva area and not just the internal passageway.<sup>2</sup>

Sexual Battery

Section 794.011, F.S., criminalizes sexual battery offenses. Sexual battery means oral, anal, or vaginal penetration by, or union with, the sexual organ of another or the anal or vaginal penetration of another by any other object.<sup>3</sup> The offense level for sexual battery differs based on the offender’s age, the victim’s age, and the presence of other specified circumstances, as follows:

Subsection	Offender’s Age	Victim’s Age	Special Circumstances Present	Felony Level
(2)(a)	≥ 18 yrs.	< 12 yrs.	Injures the victim’s sexual organs	Capital
(2)(b)	< 18 yrs.	< 12 yrs.	Injures the victim’s sexual organs	Life
(3)	No age requirement	≥ 12 yrs.	Uses or threatens to use a deadly weapon or uses actual physical force likely to cause serious personal injury	Life
(4)(a)	≥ 18 yrs.	≥ 12 yrs., but < 18 yrs.	Any circumstance listed in s. 794.011(4)(e), F.S.	First
(4)(b)	≥ 18 yrs.	≥ 18 yrs.	Any circumstance listed in s. 794.011(4)(e), F.S.	First
(4)(c)	< 18 yrs.	≥ 12 yrs.	Any circumstance listed in s. 794.011(4)(e), F.S.	First
(4)(d)	No age requirement	≥ 12 yrs.	Any circumstance listed in s. 794.011(4)(e), F.S., and offender was previously convicted of an enumerated sexually motivated offense against a minor	First
(5)(a)	≥ 18 yrs.	≥ 12 yrs., but < 18 yrs.	No physical force or violence likely to cause serious personal injury	First
(5)(b)	≥ 18 yrs.	≥ 18 yrs.	No physical force or violence likely to cause serious personal injury	Second
(5)(c)	< 18 yrs.	≥ 12 yrs.	No physical force or violence likely to cause serious personal injury	Second
(5)(d)	No age requirement	≥ 12 yrs.	No physical force or violence likely to cause serious personal injury but offender was previously convicted of an enumerated sexually motivated offense against a minor	First

Section 794.011(4)(e), F.S., lists specified aggravating factors, including:

- The victim is physically helpless to resist;

<sup>1</sup> See Richards v. State, 738 So.2d 415, 419 (Fla. 2d DCA 1999) (holding that the vagina should be defined as “the canal between the vulva and the uterus.”); Firekey v. State, 557 So.2d 582 (Fla. 4th DCA 1989) (holding that penetration of the labia does not constitute sexual battery).

- The offender coerces the victim to submit by threatening the use of force or violence likely to cause serious personal injury to the victim, and the victim reasonably believes that the offender has the present ability to execute the threat;
- The offender coerces the victim to submit by threatening to retaliate against the victim, or any other person, and the victim reasonably believes that the offender has the ability to execute the threat in the future;
- The offender, without the prior knowledge or consent of the victim, administers or has knowledge of someone else administering to the victim any narcotic, anesthetic, or other intoxicating substance that mentally or physically incapacitates the victim;
- The victim is mentally defective, and the offender has reason to believe this or has actual knowledge of the fact;
- The victim is physically incapacitated;
- The offender is a law enforcement officer, correctional officer, or correctional probation officer,<sup>4</sup> or is an elected official exempt from such certification,<sup>5</sup> or any other person in a position of control or authority in a probation, community control, controlled release, detention, custodial, or similar setting, and such officer, official, or person is acting in such a manner as to lead the victim to reasonably believe that the offender is in a position of control or authority as an agent or employee of the government.

Obscenity, Sexual Performance by a Child, and Child Pornography

The following definitions apply to offenses related to obscenity, sexual performance by a child, and child pornography:

- “Sexual battery” means oral, anal, or vaginal penetration by, or union with, the sexual organ of another or the anal or vaginal penetration of another by any other object; however, “sexual battery” does not include an act done for a bona fide medical purpose.<sup>6</sup>
- “Sexual bestiality” means any sexual act, actual or simulated, between a person and an animal involving the sex organ of the one and the mouth, anus, or vagina of the other.<sup>7</sup>
- “Sexual conduct” means actual or simulated<sup>8</sup> sexual intercourse, deviate sexual intercourse, sexual bestiality, masturbation, or sadomasochistic abuse; actual lewd exhibition of the genitals; actual physical contact with a person’s clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or if such person is female, breast with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of either party; or any act or conduct which constitutes sexual battery or simulates that sexual battery is being or will be committed. A mother’s breastfeeding of her baby does not under any circumstances constitute “sexual conduct.”<sup>9</sup>

Because the definition of the term “sexual conduct” includes the terms “sexual battery” and “sexual bestiality” within chapters 847, 827, and 775, F.S., and the terms “sexual battery” and “sexual bestiality” include the terms “vagina” and “vaginal,” the prohibited conduct related to obscenity, sexual performance by a child, and child pornography may also be subject to the same uncertainty regarding the meaning of the terms “vagina” and “vaginal.”

<sup>4</sup> As defined in s. 943.10(1), (2), (3), (6), (7), (8), or (9), F.S., and who is certified under s. 943.1395, F.S.

<sup>8</sup> For purposes of chapters 847 and 827, F.S., the term “simulated” means the explicit depiction of conduct described in subsection (16) which creates the appearance of such conduct and which exhibits any uncovered portion of the breasts, genitals, or buttocks.

<sup>9</sup> Ss. 775.0847(1)(f), 827.071(1)(h), and 847.001(16), F.S.

Obscenity

Chapter 847, F.S., governs offenses relating to obscenity, and includes in part, laws relating to: the prohibition of certain acts in connection with obscene or lewd materials; the regulation of materials harmful to minors and the sale or distribution of materials harmful to minors; and computer pornography, prohibited computer usage, and traveling to meet minors.

Under ch. 847, F.S., the term “obscene,” means the status of material which:

- The average person, applying contemporary community standards, would find, taken as a whole, appeals to the prurient interests;
- Depicts or describes, in a patently offensive way, sexual conduct; and
- Taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.<sup>10</sup>

Sexual Performance by a Child

Section 827.071(4), F.S., makes it a second degree felony<sup>11</sup> for a person to possess with the intent to promote<sup>12</sup> any photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, includes any sexual conduct by a child.<sup>13</sup> Possession of three or more copies of such photographs, etc., is prima facie evidence of a person’s intent to promote.<sup>14</sup>

Section 827.071(5), F.S., makes it a third degree felony<sup>15</sup> for any person to knowingly possess, control, or intentionally view<sup>16</sup> a photograph, motion picture, or other image that, in whole or in part, he or she knows includes any sexual conduct by a child.<sup>17</sup>

Child Pornography

Section 775.0847, F.S., reclassifies violations relating to: sexual performance by a child;<sup>18</sup> computer pornography, prohibited computer usage, and traveling to meet a minor;<sup>19</sup> transmission of pornography by electronic device or equipment;<sup>20</sup> and transmission of material harmful to minors to a minor by electronic device or equipment<sup>21</sup> to the next highest degree felony offense if:

- The offender possesses 10 or more images of any form of child pornography<sup>22</sup> regardless of content; and
- The content of at least one image contains one or more of the following:
  - A child who is younger than the age of 5.
  - Sadomasochistic abuse<sup>23</sup> involving a child.
  - Sexual battery involving a child.
  - Sexual bestiality involving a child.

Proof of intentional viewing requires establishing more than a single image, motion picture, exhibition, show, image, data, computer depiction, representation, or other presentation was viewed over any period of time.

<sup>17</sup> The statute also specifies that the possession, control, or intentional viewing of each such photograph, or other image, is a separate offense. ### Unlawful Sexual Activity with Certain Minors

Section 794.05, F.S., criminalizes sexual activity between a person who is 24 or older and a victim who is 16 or 17 years old, regardless of whether the 16 or 17 year old victim consents to such sexual activity.<sup>25</sup> Sexual activity means the oral, anal, or vaginal penetration by, or union with, the sexual organ of another or the anal or vaginal penetration of another by any other object, but does not include an act done for a bona fide medical purpose. Unlawful sexual activity with certain minors is punishable as a second degree felony, and a person convicted of the offense must register as a sexual offender under s. 943.0435, F.S.

Lewd or Lascivious Offenses

The Florida Supreme Court has held that the terms "lewd" and "lascivious" mean a wicked, lustful, unchaste, licentious, or sensual intent on the part of the person doing an act.<sup>26</sup> Sections 800.04 and 825.1025, F.S., criminalize specified lewd or lascivious offenses committed upon or in the presence of specified persons, and both sections define sexual activity as the oral, anal, or vaginal penetration by, or union with, the sexual organ of another or the anal or vaginal penetration of another by any other object.<sup>27</sup>

Lewd or Lascivious Battery – Victim Younger than 16

A person commits lewd and lascivious battery by:

- Encouraging, forcing, or enticing any person under 16 to engage in:
  - Sadomasochistic abuse;
  - Sexual bestiality;

Lewd or Lascivious Exhibition – Victim Younger than 16

<sup>31</sup> A first degree felony is punishable by up to 30 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. Ss. 775.082, 775.083, or 775.084, F.S.

- Intentionally committing any other sexual act that does not involve actual physical or sexual contact with the victim, including, but not limited to, sadomasochistic abuse, sexual bestiality, or the simulation of any act involving sexual activity.<sup>32</sup>

Lewd or lascivious exhibition is either a second or third degree felony depending on the offender's age.<sup>33</sup>

Lewd or Lascivious Battery or Exhibition – Elderly or Disabled Victim

Under s. 825.1025, F.S., a person commits lewd or lascivious battery or exhibition upon an elderly or disabled person in the same manner as an offense of lewd or lascivious battery or exhibition involving a victim younger than 16, except that the offense is committed against an elderly or disabled person whom the perpetrator knew or reasonably should have known either lacked the capacity to consent or failed to give consent.<sup>34</sup>

A psychotherapist commits a:

- Third degree felony by committing a first offense of sexual misconduct with a client.<sup>39</sup>
- Second degree felony by committing:<sup>40</sup>
  - A second or subsequent offense of sexual misconduct with a client; or
  - Any offense of sexual misconduct with a client by means of therapeutic deception.<sup>41</sup>

A psychotherapist is prohibited from raising a client's consent as a defense to a prosecution for any offense of sexual misconduct by a psychotherapist.<sup>42</sup>

Blood Tests of Inmates

Section 951.27, F.S., requires each county and municipal detention facility to have a written procedure establishing the conditions under which an inmate will be tested for infectious diseases.<sup>45</sup> Except as otherwise provided, the results of such blood tests are confidential and exempt from public records requirements. One exception to this exemption provides that a victim, or the victim's parent or legal guardian, may request the results of any human immunodeficiency virus test performed on an inmate who has been arrested for a sexual offense involving the oral, anal, or vaginal penetration by, or union with, the sexual organ of another.<sup>46</sup>

For purposes of s. 365.161, F.S., “obscene” means the status of communication which:

- The average person applying contemporary community standards would find, taken as a whole, appeals to the prurient interests;
- Describes, in a patently offensive way, deviate sexual intercourse, sadomasochistic abuse, sexual battery, bestiality, sexual conduct, or sexual excitement; and

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends the following statutes relating to prohibited sexual conduct, to replace the terms “vagina” or “vaginal” with “female genital” or “female genitals”:

- Section 365.161, F.S., which prohibits certain obscene telephone communications;
- Section 491.0112, F.S., relating to sexual misconduct by a psychotherapist;
- Section 775.0847, F.S., relating to the possession or promotion of certain images of child pornography;
- Section 794.011, F.S., relating to sexual battery;
- Section 794.05, F.S., relating to unlawful sexual activity with certain minors;
- Section 796.07, F.S., relating to the prohibition of prostitution;
- Section 800.04, F.S., relating to lewd or lascivious offenses upon or in the presence of a person under 16;
- Section 825.1025, F.S., relating to lewd or lascivious offenses upon or in the presence of an elderly or disabled person;
- Section 827.071, F.S., relating to sexual performance by a child;
- Section 847.001, F.S., which provides definitions relating to obscenity;
- Section 872.06, F.S., relating to abuse of a dead human body;
- Section 944.35, F.S., relating to malicious battery and sexual misconduct by a correctional facility employee; and
- Section 951.27, F.S., relating to blood testing of inmates charged with a sexual offense.

Under the bill, the term “female genitals” includes the:

- Labia minora;
- Labia majora;
- Clitoris;
- Vulva;
- Hymen; and
- Vagina.

The bill removes any ambiguity in the meaning of the terms “vagina” or “vaginal” and resolves the conflict between the Florida DCAs regarding the definition of the term “vagina,” which may lead to more equivalent outcomes amongst the circuits based on the same conduct.

Per the Department of Corrections, there were 700 new commitments to prison under the statutes amended in the bill in fiscal year 2018-19. In fiscal year 2019-20, there were 602 new commitments, and in fiscal year 2020-21, there were 436 new commitments.
