24 25 An act relating to Brevard County; providing an exception to general law; providing that party designation be printed on ballots for all non-judicial elections; providing that only qualified electors of the district, ward, precinct, or other geographical designation are eligible to vote in certain elections;

providing applicability; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

- Section 1. (1) Notwithstanding any other state law to the contrary, the Brevard County Supervisor of Elections shall print on the ballot the party designation for all candidates for all nonjudicial elections.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for any government unit in Brevard County that provides for the election of members by district, ward, precinct, or other geographical designation, only those voters who are qualified electors of the district, ward, precinct, or other geographical designation are eligible to vote for that candidate in the relevant primary, general, runoff, or other election.
- (3) This act applies to all Brevard County elections held on or after January 1, 2022.
  - Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
