(d) "Female" means a person belonging, at birth, to the biological sex which has the specific reproductive role of producing eggs.
(e) "Male" means a person belonging, at birth, to the biological sex which has the specific reproductive role of producing sperm.

(f) "Restroom" means a room that includes one or more water closets. This term does not include a unisex restroom.

(g) "Sex" means the classification of a person as either female or male based on the organization of the body of such person for a specific reproductive role, as indicated by the person's sex chromosomes, naturally occurring sex hormones, and internal and external genitalia present at birth.

(h) "Unisex changing facility" means a room intended for a single-occupant or a family in which one or more persons may be in a state of undress, including, but not limited to, a dressing room, fitting room, locker room, changing room, or shower room that is enclosed in floor-to-ceiling walls and accessed by a full door with a secure lock that prevents another individual from entering while the changing facility is in use.

(i) "Unisex restroom" means a room that includes one or more water closets that is intended for a single-occupant, or a family, and the room is enclosed in floor-to-ceiling walls and accessed by a full door with a secure lock that prevents another individual from entering while the room is in use.

(j) "Water closet" means a toilet or urinal.

(3) A covered entity that maintains a water closet must, at a minimum, have:
(a) A restroom designated for exclusive use by females and
(a) A restroom designated for exclusive use by males; or

(b) A unisex restroom.

(4) A covered entity that maintains a changing facility must, at a minimum, have:

(a) A changing facility designated for exclusive use by females and a changing facility designated for exclusive use by males; or

(b) A unisex changing facility.

(5) For purposes of this section, a person may enter a restroom or changing facility designated for the opposite sex under the following circumstances:

(a) To accompany another person of the opposite sex for the purpose of assisting or chaperoning a minor child, elderly person, or disabled person.

(b) For law enforcement or governmental regulatory purposes;

(c) For the purpose of rendering emergency medical assistance or to intervene in any other emergency situation where the health or safety of another person is at risk;

(d) For custodial, maintenance, or inspection purposes, provided that the restroom or changing facility is not in use;

or

(e) If the appropriate designated restroom or changing facility is out of order or under repair and the opposite designated restroom or changing facility contains no person of the opposite sex.

(6) A person 18 years of age or older who willfully enters into a restroom or changing facility designated for the opposite sex for the purpose of arousing or gratifying a sexual desire of himself or herself or any other person, while knowing a minor of the opposite sex is present in the restroom or changing facility, commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(7) Each educational institution shall establish in its code of student conduct disciplinary procedures for any person under 18 years of age who willfully enters an educational institution's restroom or changing facility designated for the opposite sex for the purpose of arousing or gratifying a sexual desire of himself or herself or any other person.

(8) A domestic violence center under chapter 39 must provide separate overnight accommodations for females and males based on their sex. This requirement does not apply to mixed-sex family units.

(9) A correctional institution must house females and males in its custody separately, based on their sex. This requirement applies to all housing assignments in a correctional institution, including temporary assignments.

(10)(a) The Attorney General may bring a civil action to enforce this section against any covered entity. The Attorney General may seek injunctive relief, and, for any covered entity found to have willfully violated this section, the Attorney General may seek to impose a fine of up to $10,000.

(b) Fines collected pursuant to paragraph (a) must be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

(11) This section does not apply to an individual born
