16	WHEREAS, the International Standards Organization, based in
17	Switzerland, recently approved a new merchant category code for
18	firearm and ammunition merchants, and
19	WHEREAS, firearm and ammunition merchants historically have
20	been classified as sporting goods retailers or general
21	merchandise retailers, which has been sufficient for credit card
22	companies' business needs, and
23	WHEREAS, according to advocates for the new merchant

65	(1) LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND INTENT
66	(a) The Legislature finds and declares that:
67	1. The right of individuals to keep and bear arms is
68	guaranteed under both the Second Amendment to the United States
69	Constitution and s. 8, Art. I of the State Constitution.
70	2. A list, record, or registry of legally owned firearms

76 list, record, or registry has the potential to fall into the 77 wrong hands and become a shopping list for thieves.

3. A list, record, or registry of legally owned firearms or law-abiding firearm owners is not a tool for fighting terrorism, but rather is an instrument that can be used as a means to profile innocent citizens and to harass and abuse American citizens based solely on their choice to own firearms and exercise their Second Amendment right to keep and bear arms as guaranteed under the United States Constitution.

The creation or maintenance of records of purchases of 85 4. firearms or ammunition or the tracking of sales made by a 86 retailer of firearms or ammunition by a nongovernmental entity, 87 including a financial institution, without a substantial and 88 89 historical business need or a requirement imposed by law, may 90 frustrate the right to keep and bear arms and violate the 91 reasonable privacy rights of lawful purchasers of firearms or 92 ammunition.

5. Law-abiding firearm owners whose names have been illegally recorded in a list, record, or registry are entitled to redress.

101 knowingly and willfully keep or cause to be kept any list, 102 record, or registry of privately owned firearms or any list, 103 record, or registry of the owners of those firearms. 104 (b) A payment settlement entity, merchant acquiring 105 entity, or third party settlement organization as those terms are defined in s. 6050W of the Internal Revenue Code may not 106 107 assign a merchant category code to or otherwise classify a merchant that is a seller of firearms or ammunition separately 108 109 from general merchandise retailers or sporting goods retailers. (4) PENALTIES.-110 111 (a) Any person who, or entity that, violates paragraph (2) (a) a provision of this section commits a felony of the third 112 degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. 113 114 Except as required by the provisions of s. 16, Art. I (b) 115 of the State Constitution or the Sixth Amendment to the United 116 States Constitution, no public funds may not shall be used to 117 defend the unlawful conduct of any person charged with a 118 violation of this section, unless the charges against the such 119 person are dismissed or the such person is determined to be not 120 guilty at trial. Notwithstanding this paragraph, public funds 121 may be expended to provide the services of the office of public defender or court-appointed conflict counsel as provided by law. 122 123 (C) The governmental entity, or the designee of the such 124 governmental entity, in whose service or employ a list, record, 125 or registry was compiled in violation of paragraph (2)(a) this

126 section may be assessed a fine of up to not more than $5 127 million, if the court determines that the evidence shows that 128 the list, record, or registry was compiled or maintained with 129 the knowledge or complicity of the management of the 130 governmental entity. The Attorney General may bring a civil 131 cause of action to enforce the fines assessed under this 132 paragraph.

(d) The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services
may investigate alleged violations of paragraph (2)(b) and, upon
finding a violation, bring an administrative action seeking to
impose an administrative fine pursuant to s. 570.971 in the
Class III category for each violation of paragraph (2)(b) for
each instance of an unlawfully classified retailer.

(e) The state attorney in the appropriate jurisdiction shall investigate complaints of criminal violations of this section, except for alleged violations of paragraph (2)(b), and shall prosecute violators, where evidence indicates that a violation may have occurred, shall prosecute violators.

Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2023.
