581-02014-23 202352c1 following the prescribed courses of study, and employing approved methods of instruction, the following: (u) Social media safety. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "social media" means a form of interactive electronic communication through an Internet website or application by which a user creates a service-specific identifying user profile to connect with other users of the Internet website or application for the purpose of communicating and sharing information, ideas, news, stories, opinions, images, videos, and other content. The Department of Education shall make social media safety instructional material available online and district school boards shall notify parents of the material's online availability. The material must include age-appropriate and developmentally appropriate instruction on social media safety for students in grades 6 through 12 and focus on the social, emotional, and physical effects of social media and promote best practices in digital citizenship. For purposes of this requirement, "digital citizenship" means the norms of appropriate, responsible, and healthy behavior related to social media, including digital literacy, ethics, etiquette, and security. The social media safety instruction must include: 1. The advantages of social media use. Such instruction may only include career and resume building for future academic or employment opportunities, sharing information with familiar family and friends, and safely connecting with other users with like interests.

56 2. The risks of social media, including, but not limited 57 to, social media addiction, publication of misinformation, 58 negative effects on mental health, and the permanent nature of
