12	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
13
14	Section 1. Section 1006.7511, Florida Statutes, is created
15	to read:
16	1006.7511 Single-sex Student Organizations' Bill of
17	Rights
18	(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENTIt is the intent of the
19	Legislature to protect students who are members and prospective
20	members of a single-sex student organization and single-sex
21	student organizations from adverse action by an institution of
22	higher education based solely on the student's membership in the
23	organization or the organization's practice of limiting
24	membership to only individuals of one sex. It is further the
25	intent of the Legislature to ensure that students who are

26	members of a single-sex student organization and single-sex
27	student organizations are treated without bias in comparison to
28	students at an institution of higher education who are not
29	members of single-sex student organizations, or other social
30	organizations at an institution of higher education that do not
31	limit membership to only individuals of one sex, and also
32	protect the rights of students to freely associate with and
33	participate in social organizations, including single-sex
34	student organizations.
35	(2) DEFINITIONSAs used in this section, the term:
36	(a) "Adverse action" means any of the following actions by
37	an institution of higher education, an administrative unit of
38	such institution, or an official of such institution acting in
39	his or her official capacity taken against a single-sex student
40	organization or a member or prospective member of a single-sex
41	student organization:
42	1. Expulsion, suspension, probation, censure,
43	condemnation, formal reprimand, or any other disciplinary
44	action, coercive action, or sanction.
45	2. Issuing an oral or written warning regarding an action
46	described in subparagraph 1.
47	3. Denying participation in any education program or
48	activity, including withholding any rights, privileges, or
49	opportunities.
50	4. Withholding, in whole or part, any financial assistance

76	(3) RIGHTS OF SINGLE-SEX ORGANIZATIONS AND THEIR MEMBERS
77	AT INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION
78	(a) A student may form, join, and, if selected for
79	membership, participate in a student organization, including a
80	single-sex student organization, regardless of whether such
81	organization is officially recognized by an institution of
82	higher education.
83	(b) An institution of higher education may not take
84	adverse action against a student or single-sex organization
85	based solely on that organization's status as a single-sex
86	student organization or that student's membership in such
87	organization.
88	(c) An institution of higher education may not impose a
89	restriction on forming or joining a single-sex student
90	organization unless the restriction is equally applied to all
91	students and student organizations or mutually agreed to in
92	writing between such organization and institution.
93	(d) An institution of higher education shall grant a
94	single-sex student organization the same procedural protections
95	afforded to any other student organization under such
96	institution's code of conduct or other relevant regulations.
97	(e) An institution of higher education may not impose
98	reporting requirements on a single-sex student organization
99	unless the requirement is also required of all student
100	organizations or unless mutually agreed to in writing between

101	the single-sex student organization and the institution.
102	(4) CONSTRUCTION This section does not:
103	(a) Require an institution of higher education to
104	officially recognize a student organization, including a single-
105	sex student organization.
106	(b) Prohibit an institution of higher education from
107	taking adverse action against a student, so long as that adverse
108	action is not based solely on the student's membership in a
109	single-sex student organization or the membership practices of
110	such organization.
111	(c) Prevent any single-sex student organization from
112	regulating its own membership.
113	(d) Inhibit or prohibit the ability of the faculty of an
114	institution of higher education to express an opinion, either
115	individually or collectively, about membership in a single-sex
116	student organization, or otherwise inhibit the academic freedom
117	of such faculty to research, write, or publish material about
118	membership in such organization.
119	(e) Create enforceable rights against a single-sex student
120	organization or an institution of higher education due to the
121	decision of such organization to deny membership to an
122	individual student.
123	(5) PENALTIES. — An institution of higher education that
124	violates this section shall:
125	(a) For a first offense, post on its website notice of the

126	violation.
127	(b) For a second offense, pay a fine of $10,000 to the
128	governing council or councils of the single-sex student
129	organization or organizations which such offense is against.
130	(c) For a third or subsequent offense, pay a fine of
131	$25,000 to the governing council or councils of the single-sex
132	student organization or organizations which such offense is
133	against.
134	(6) RULES AND REGULATIONS The State Board of Education
135	and the Board of Governors shall adopt rules and regulations,
136	respectively, to administer this section.
137	Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2024.
