Senator Martin moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Present paragraph (1) of subsection (2) of section 934.03, Florida Statutes, is redesignated as paragraph (m), and a new paragraph (1) is added to that subsection, to read:

934.03 Interception and disclosure of wire, oral, or electronic communications prohibited.-

12 (1)1. It is lawful under this section and ss. 934.04-934.09
13 for a parent or legal guardian of a child under 18 years of age 14 to intercept and record an oral communication if the child is a 15 party to the communication and the parent or legal guardian has 16 reasonable grounds to believe that recording the communication 17 will capture a statement by another party to the communication 18 that the other party intends to commit, is committing, or has 19 committed an unlawful sexual act or an unlawful act of physical 20 force or violence against the child.

21 2. A recording authorized under this paragraph which 22 captures a statement by a party that the party intends to 23 commit, is committing, or has committed an unlawful sexual act
24 or an unlawful act of physical force or violence against a child 25 must be provided to a law enforcement agency and may be used for 26 the purpose of evidencing the intent to commit or the commission 27 of a crime specified in subparagraph 1. against a child. A 28 recording authorized under this paragraph may not be otherwise 29 disseminated or shared.

30 Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
