11 controlled substance described in s. 893.135(1)(c)4.a.(I)-(VII).

12 (b) "Expose" or "exposure" means to cause any of the 13 following, including, but not limited to, ingestion, inhalation,
14 needlestick injury, or absorption through skin or mucous
15 membranes.

16 (c) "First responder" means a law enforcement officer as 17 defined in s. 943.10(1), a correctional officer as defined in s.
18 943.10(2), a correctional probation officer as defined in s.
19 943.10(3), a firefighter as defined in s. 633.102, an emergency 20 medical technician as defined in s. 401.23, or a paramedic as 21 defined in s. 401.23, who is acting in his or her official 22 capacity.

23 (d) "Overdose or serious bodily injury" means drug toxicity
24 or a physical condition that creates a substantial risk of death
25 or substantial loss or impairment of the function of any bodily 26 member or organ.

27 (2) A person 18 years of age or older who, in the course of 28 unlawfully possessing dangerous fentanyl or fentanyl analogs,
29 exposes a first responder to dangerous fentanyl or fentanyl
30 analog and an overdose or serious bodily injury of the first 31 responder results, commits a felony of the first degree, 32 punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

33 (3) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of this 34 section that a first responder acted so far outside the scope of 35 ordinary care generally exercised by a member of his or her 36 profession that he or she caused or substantially contributed to 37 the exposure.

38 Section 2. This act shall take effect October 1, 2024.
