COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 1136 creates s. 787.001, F.S. to specify that ignorance or misrepresentation of a victim's age is not a defense to certain offenses, when the criminality of conduct depends upon the victim being below a certain age. A bona fide belief that a victim is over a specified age is also not a defense.

The bill prohibits such defenses from being raised in a prosecution for any offense related to kidnapping, false imprisonment, luring or enticing a child, interference with custody, removing minors from the state or concealing minors contrary to state agency order or court order, human trafficking, or human smuggling. However, the bill provides an exception for s. 787.30, F.S., relating to the employment of persons in adult entertainment establishments.

The bill amends s. 787.025, F.S., to increase the penalties for specified offenses involving luring or enticing a child. Additionally, the bill increases the age of such child from 12 to 16 years of age.

The bill amends s. 921.022, F.S., to rank offenses of luring or enticing a child on the offense severity ranking chart of the Criminal Punishment Code as a Level 7.

The bill may have an indeterminate fiscal impact on the Department of Correction. See Section V. Fiscal Impact Statement.

The bill takes effect October 1, 2025.

II. Present Situation:

Luring or Enticing a Minor

It is a first degree misdemeanor¹ for a person over the age of 18 to intentionally lure or entice, or attempt to lure or entice, a child under the age of 12 into a structure,² dwelling,³ or conveyance⁴ for other than a lawful purpose.⁵ A second or subsequent offense is a third degree felony.^{6,7}

It is a third degree felony if the offender being charged with luring or enticing a minor, has previously been convicted of a violation of:

- Chapter 794, F.S., relating to sexual battery;
- Section 800.04, F.S., relating to lewd or lascivious offenses committed upon or in the presence of persons less than 16 years of age;
- Section 847.0135(5), F.S., relating to prohibited computer transmissions;⁸ or
- A similar law of another jurisdiction.

Section 787.025(3), F.S., provides the following affirmative defenses:

- The person reasonably believed that his or her action was necessary to prevent the child from being seriously injured.
- The person lured or enticed, or attempted to lure or entice, the child under the age of 12 into a structure, dwelling, or conveyance for a lawful purpose.
- The person's actions were reasonable under the circumstances and the defendant did not have any intent to harm the health, safety, or welfare of the child.

- Aggravated child abuse.¹⁴
- Sexual battery against the child.¹⁵

A violation of this prohibition is a third degree felony.²⁸

Additionally, in the absence of a court order determining rights to custody or visitation with any minor or with any incompetent person, any parent of the minor or incompetent person, whether natural or adoptive, stepparent, legal guardian, or relative of the minor or incompetent person who has custody thereof and who takes, detains, conceals, or entices away that minor or incompetent person within or without the state with malicious intent to deprive another person of his or her right to custody of the minor or incompetent person commits a third degree felony.²⁹

In a prosecution for a violation of s. 787.03, F.S., proof that a person has not attained the age of 18 years creates the presumption that the defendant knew the minor's age or acted in reckless disregard thereof.³⁰

Additionally, a person, who has carried beyond the limits of this state any minor whose custody is involved in any action or proceeding pending in this state pursuant to the order of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending or pursuant to the permission of the court, is prohibited from thereafter failing to produce the minor in the court or deliver the minor to the person designated by the court.³⁴

Any violation of the foregoing provisions in s. 787.04, F.S., is a third degree felony.

Prohibited Computer Usage

Under s. 847.0135(3), F.S., a person commits a third degree felony if he or she knowingly uses a computer online service, internet service, local bulletin board service, or any other device capable of electronic data storage or transmission to:

- Seduce, solicit, lure, or entice, or attempt to seduce, solicit, lure, or entice, a child⁵² or another person believed by the offender to be a child, to commit any illegal act described in ch. 794, F.S., relating to sexual battery, ch. 800, F.S., relating to lewdness and indecent exposure, or ch. 827, F.S., relating to abuse of children, or to otherwise engage in any unlawful sexual conduct with a child or with another person believed by the offender to be a child; or

Criminal Punishment Code

The Criminal Punishment Code⁵⁴ (Code) is Florida's primary sentencing policy. Noncapital felonies sentenced under the Code receive an offense severity level ranking (Levels 1-10).⁵⁵ The maximum sentence that can be imposed for a criminal offense is generally based on the degree of the misdemeanor or felony:

- 60 days in a county jail for a second degree misdemeanor;
- One year in a county jail for a first degree misdemeanor;
- Five years in state prison for a third degree felony;
- 15 years in state prison for a second degree felony; and
- Generally, 30 years in state prison for a first degree felony.⁵⁶

⁵⁰ Section 787.30(3), F.S.

⁵¹ Section 787.30(4), F.S.

⁵² "Child" means any person, whose identity is known or unknown, younger than 18 years of age. Section 847.001(10), F.S.

⁵³ The offense is ranked as a Level 7 offense on the OSRC.

⁵⁴ Sections 921.002-921.0027, F.S. See chs. 97-194 and 98-204, L.O.F. The Code is effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 1998.

⁵⁵ Offenses are either ranked in the offense severity level ranking chart in s. 921.0022, F.S., or are ranked by default based on a ranking assigned to the felony degree of the offense as provided in s. 921.0023, F.S.

⁵⁶ Section 775.082, F.S. Fines may also be imposed, and those fines escalate based on the degree of the offense. Section 775.083, F.S., provides the following maximum fines; $500 for a second degree misdemeanor; $1,000 for a first degree misdemeanor; $5,000 for a third degree felony; and $10,000 for a second degree felony and a first degree felony.

Offense Severity Ranking Chart

Section 921.0022(1) and (2), F.S., provides the offense severity ranking chart that must be used with the Criminal Punishment Code worksheet to compute a sentence score for each felony offender whose offense was committed on or after October 1, 1998. The chart has 10 offense levels, ranked from least severe to most severe.

Section 921.0023, F.S., provides that until the Legislature specifically assigns an offense to a severity level in the offense severity ranking chart, the severity level is within the following parameters:

- A third degree felony is within offense level 1;
- A second degree felony is within offense level 4;
- A first degree felony is within offense level 7;
- A first degree punishable by life felony is within offense level 9; and
- A life felony is within offense level 10.

Points are assigned and accrue based upon the offense severity level ranking assigned to the primary offense, additional offenses, and prior offenses. Sentence points escalate as the severity level escalates. Points may also be added or multiplied for other factors such as victim injury or the commission of certain offenses. The lowest permissible sentence is any non-state prison sanction in which total sentence points equal or are less than 44 points, unless the court determines that a prison sentence is appropriate. If total sentence points exceed 44 points, the lowest permissible sentence in prison months is calculated by subtracting 28 points from the total sentence points and decreasing the remaining total by 25 percent.⁵⁷ Absent mitigation,⁵⁸ the permissible sentencing range under the Code is generally the lowest permissible sentence scored up to and including the maximum penalty provided under s. 775.082, F.S.⁵⁹

Relevant Caselaw

While the general rule is that every crime must include a specific intent, or a mens rea, the Legislature and courts recognize an exception where the state has a compelling interest in protecting underage persons from being sexually abused or exploited. In cases relating to sex offenses or abuse involving minors, a persons ignorance of the age of the victim is not a defense, nor is the misrepresentation of age or a defendant's bona fide⁶⁰ belief that such victim is over the specified age.^{61,62}

⁵⁷ Section 921.0024, F.S., Unless otherwise noted, information on the Code is from this source.

⁵⁸ The court may "mitigate" or "depart downward" from the scored lowest permissible sentence, if the court finds a mitigating circumstance. Section 921.0026, F.S., provides a list of mitigating circumstances.

⁵⁹ If the scored lowest permissible sentence exceeds the maximum penalty in s.775.082, F.S., the sentence required by the Code must be imposed. If total sentence points are greater than or equal to 363 points, the court may sentence the offender to life imprisonment. Section 921.0024(2), F.S.

⁶⁰ "Bona fide" means being real or genuine, in Latin the word literally means "in good faith." Merriam-Webster, Law Dictionary, available at: <https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/bona%20fide#legalDictionary> (last visited March 21, 2025).

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill creates s. 787.001, F.S., to specify that ignorance or misrepresentation of a victim's age is not a defense to certain offenses, when the criminality of conduct depends upon the victim being below a certain age.
