SUMMARY

Effect of the Bill:

The bill creates a public record exemption to make a lethality assessment form completed on, before, or after January 1, 2025, that contains a domestic violence victim's information and responses to the lethality assessment confidential and exempt from public record requirements. The bill authorizes lethality assessment forms to be released to domestic violence centers and state attorneys' offices, but requires such centers and offices to maintain the forms and information contained within such forms in a specified manner. The bill provides for repeal of the exemption on October 2, 2030, unless reviewed and saved from repeal by the Legislature.

Fiscal or Economic Impact:

The bill may have an indeterminate negative fiscal impact on state and local governments holding lethality assessment forms as staff responsible for complying with public records requests may require training on the newly-created public record exemption for lethality assessment forms.

ANALYSIS

EFFECT OF THE BILL:

CS/HB 1479 passed as CS/CS/SB 1640. (Please note that bill section parentheticals do not contain hyperlinks to bill sections for Senate bills)

The bill creates a public record exemption to make a lethality assessment form completed on, before, or after January 1, 2025, that contains a domestic violence victim's information and responses to a law enforcement officer administered lethality assessment confidential and exempt from public record requirements. (Section 1)

The bill authorizes a lethality assessment form to be disclosed to a domestic violence center, but requires any domestic violence center that receives such a form to keep the form and its contents confidential. (Section 1)

The bill authorizes a lethality assessment form to be disclosed to a state attorney's office. The bill further authorizes a state attorney who receives such a form to release the confidential information:

- In furtherance of his or her official duties and responsibilities.
- To the parties in a pending criminal prosecution as required by law. (Section 1)

Pursuant to the Open Government Sunset Review Act, the exemption will be automatically repealed on October 2, 2030, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. (Section 1)

The bill includes the constitutionally required public necessity statement, in which the Legislature finds that it is necessary to make lethality assessment forms that contain a victim's information and responses to a lethality assessment confidential and exempt from public record requirements as the information included in such a form is sensitive in nature and the release of such information could subject victims of domestic violence to an increased risk of abuse. The Legislature further finds that victims are more likely to participate in a lethality assessment if the accompanying form is protected from public disclosure and that the harm that may result from the release of such information outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information. (Section 2)

The bill was approved by the Governor on May 23, 2025, ch. 2025-89, L.O.F., and became effective on that date. (Section 3)

RELEVANT INFORMATION

SUBJECT OVERVIEW:

Public Records

Article I, section 24\(a\) of the Florida Constitution sets forth the state's public policy regarding access to government records. This section guarantees every person the right to inspect or copy any public record of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of government.<sup>1</sup> The Legislature, however, may provide by general law for exemption<sup>2</sup> from public record requirements provided that the exemption passes by a two-thirds vote of each chamber, states with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption, and is no broader than necessary to meet its public purpose.<sup>3</sup>

The Florida Statutes also address the public policy regarding access to government records. Section 119.01\(1\), F.S., guarantees every person the right to inspect and copy any state, county, or municipal record, unless the record is exempt.<sup>4</sup> Furthermore, the Open Government Sunset Review Act<sup>5</sup> provides that a public record exemption may be created, revised, or maintained only if it serves an identifiable public purpose and the Legislature finds that the purpose is sufficiently compelling to override the strong public policy of open government and cannot be accomplished without the exemption.<sup>6</sup> An identifiable public purpose is served if the exemption meets one of the following purposes:

- Allows the state or its political subdivisions to effectively and efficiently administer a governmental program, which administration would be significantly impaired without the exemption;
- Protects sensitive personal information that, if released, would be defamatory or would jeopardize an individual's safety; however, only the identity of an individual may be exempted under this provision; or
- Protects trade or business secrets.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>2</sup> A public record exemption means a provision of general law which provides that a specified record, or portion thereof, is not subject to the access requirements of s. 119.07\(1\), F.S., or s. 24, art. I of the Florida Constitution. See s. 119.011\(8\), F.S.

Pursuant to the Open Government Sunset Review Act, a new public record exemption or substantial amendment of an existing public record exemption is repealed on October 2nd of the fifth year following enactment, unless the Legislature reenacts the exemption.<sup>8</sup>

Furthermore, there is a difference between records the Legislature designates as exempt from public record requirements and those the Legislature deems confidential and exempt. A record classified as exempt from public disclosure may be disclosed under certain circumstances. However, if the Legislature designates a record as confidential and exempt from public disclosure, such record may not be released by the custodian of public records to anyone other than the persons or entities specifically designated in statute.<sup>9</sup>

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence is any assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member.<sup>10</sup>

With the exception of persons who have a child in common, the family or household members must be currently residing or have in the past resided together in the same single dwelling unit.<sup>11</sup>

In 2020,<sup>12</sup> Florida law enforcement agencies received 106,615 domestic violence reports,<sup>13</sup> resulting in 63,345 arrests.<sup>14</sup> Of those 106,615 reports, 20,735 involved a spouse, 29,663 involved a cohabitant, and 20,142 involved a person with an undefined relationship with the victim.<sup>15</sup> Additionally, in 2020, 15 percent of all murders in Florida were related to domestic violence.<sup>16,17</sup> Florida’s Computerized Criminal History recorded 71,431 domestic violence offenses in 2023.<sup>18</sup>

Furthermore, during fiscal year 2023-2024, Florida’s 41 certified domestic violence centers:<sup>19</sup>

- Answered 75,746 crisis hotline calls;
- Completed 224,384 safety plans with victims; and
- Provided 398,829 direct service information and referrals to victims, family members, and individuals seeking services.<sup>20</sup>

Lethality Assessments in Domestic Violence Investigations

Section 741.29, F.S., requires a law enforcement officer who investigates an alleged incident of domestic violence to:

- Assist the victim in obtaining medical treatment if such treatment is required as a result of the alleged incident to which the officer responds;
- Advise the victim that there is a domestic violence center where the victim may receive services;
- Administer a lethality assessment if the allegation of domestic violence is against an intimate partner, regardless of whether an arrest is made;
- Give the victim immediate notice of her or his available legal rights and remedies;<sup>21</sup> and
- Obtain a written statement from the victim and any witnesses, if possible.<sup>22</sup>

To administer a lethality assessment,<sup>23</sup> a law enforcement officer must ask the victim, in the same or similar wording and in the same order, all of the following questions:

1. Did the aggressor ever use a weapon against you or threaten you with a weapon?
2. Did the aggressor ever threaten to kill you or your children?
3. Do you believe the aggressor will try to kill you?
4. Has the aggressor ever choked you or attempted to choke you?
5. Does the aggressor have a gun or could the aggressor easily obtain a gun?
6. Is the aggressor violent or constantly jealous, or does the aggressor control most of your daily activities?
7. Did you leave or separate from the aggressor after you were living together or married?
8. Is the aggressor unemployed?
9. To the best of your knowledge, has the aggressor ever attempted suicide?
10. Do you have a child whom the aggressor believes is not the aggressor's biological child?
11. Has the aggressor ever followed, spied on, or left threatening messages for you?
12. Is there anything else that worries you about your safety and, if so, what worries you?<sup>24</sup>

A law enforcement officer must advise a victim of the results of the assessment and refer the victim to the nearest locally certified domestic violence center if:

- The victim answers affirmatively to any of the first four questions;
- The victim answers negatively to the first four questions, but answers affirmatively to at least four of the next seven questions; or
- As a result of the victim's response to the 12th question, the law enforcement officer believes the victim is in a potentially lethal situation.<sup>25</sup>

If a victim refuses, or is unable, to provide sufficient information to complete the lethality assessment, the officer must document the lack of such an assessment in his or her written police report and refer the victim to the nearest locally certified domestic violence center.<sup>26</sup> However, an officer may not include any information regarding the domestic violence center to which the victim was referred in a probable cause statement, written police report, or incident report.<sup>27</sup>
