I. Summary:

SB 1696 prohibits a person from willfully impersonating a transportation network company (TNC) driver by engaging in specified conduct. Under the bill, a violation of the prohibition is generally a second degree misdemeanor; however, a person commits a third degree felony if he or she impersonates a TNC driver during the commission of a separate felony offense.

Additionally, the bill clarifies that services purchased from a TNC do not qualify as privately owned or operated bus transit systems, and that a TNC is not a transportation service provider, and thus not subject to specified regulations relating to paratransit service contracts. The bill also modifies training requirements for paratransit drivers to authorize access to third-party training materials.

The bill may have a fiscal impact on both governmental entities and the private sector. See Section V., Fiscal Impact Statement for details.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2025.

II. Present Situation:

Transportation Network Companies (TNCs)

A Transportation Network Company (TNC), codified in s. 627.748, F.S., is defined to mean an entity operating pursuant to s. 627.748, F.S., using a digital network to connect a rider to a TNC driver, who provides prearranged rides. Specifically, a TNC:

- Does not own, control, operate, direct, or manage the TNC vehicles or TNC drivers that connect to its digital network, except where agreed to by written contract.
- Is not a taxicab association.

- Is not an individual, corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, or other entity that arranges medical transportation for individuals qualifying for Medicaid or Medicare pursuant to a contract with the state or a managed care organization.¹

A TNC driver receives connections to potential riders and related services from a TNC and in return for compensation, uses a TNC vehicle to offer or provide a prearranged ride to a rider after being connected through a digital network.² A TNC or TNC driver is not a common carrier, contract carrier, or motor carrier and does not provide taxicab service, and is not required to register a TNC vehicle as a commercial motor vehicle or a for-hire vehicle.³ A TNC's digital network must display the TNC driver's photograph and the TNC vehicle's license plate number before the rider enters the TNC vehicle.⁴

Transit Safety Standards

Section 341.061, F.S., requires the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) to adopt rules establishing minimum equipment and operational safety standards for the following entities:

- Governmentally owned bus transit systems and privately owned or operated bus transit systems operating in this state that are financed wholly or partly by state funds;
- Bus transit systems created pursuant to ch. 427, F.S., providing for the transportation disadvantaged system; and
- Privately owned or operated bus transit systems under contract with any of the above systems.

Such bus transit system standards must be developed jointly by the FDOT and representatives of the transit systems. Accordingly, each bus transit system must:

- Develop a transit safety program plan that complies with established standards;
- Certify to the FDOT that such plan complies with established standards; and
- Implement and comply with the plan during the operation of the transit system.⁵

Additionally, as part of its safety plan, each bus transit system must:

- Require all transit buses operated by the system to be inspected at least annually in accordance with established standards;
- Ensure that qualified personnel of the bus transit system, or public or private entities qualified by the bus transit system, perform safety inspections; and
- Annually certify in writing to the department that it has complied with the adopted safety program plan and safety inspections.⁶

¹ However, a TNC may provide prearranged rides to individuals who qualify for Medicaid or Medicare if it meets specified requirements under s. 627.748, F.S.

² Section 627.748(1)(g), F.S.

³ Section 627.748(2), F.S.

⁴ Section 627.748(5), F.S.

⁵ Section 341.061(2)(a), F.S.

⁶ Section 341.061(2)(b), F.S.

Transportation Service Provider Contracts

For purposes of transportation service contracts, the term “transportation service provider” is defined to mean an organization or entity that contracts with a local government to provide paratransit service to persons with disabilities.⁷

For contracts entered into or renewed on or after October 1, 2024, a transportation service provider must agree to provide training to each driver of a motor vehicle used to provide paratransit service to persons with disabilities which, at a minimum, meets requirements established by the Agency for Persons with Disabilities (APD) for training and professional development of staff providing direct services to clients of the agency.⁸

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill creates a criminal offense related to the impersonation of a TNC driver. Under the bill, a person commits a second degree misdemeanor⁹ if he or she impersonates a TNC driver by:

- Making a false statement;
- Displaying counterfeit signage or emblems of a trade dress, trademark, brand, or logo of a TNC; or
- Engaging in any other act that falsely represents that he or she represents a TNC or is responding to a passenger ride request for a TNC.

Additionally, a person who impersonates a TNC driver during the commission of a separate felony offense commits a third degree felony.¹⁰

The bill clarifies that services purchased from a TNC which otherwise comply with the TNC statute, are not considered privately owned or operated bus transit systems for purposes of the FDOT’s transit safety standards. Therefore, TNCs are not subject to specified regulations related to transit safety standards, inspections, and system safety reviews.

The bill amends the definition of “transportation service provider” as it relates to paratransit service contracts, specifying that such service providers use a dedicated fleet of vehicles operated by its employees or directly contracted drivers who meet paratransit service standards. The bill provides that the term “transportation service provider” does not include a TNC.

The bill amends the current requirement that transportation service providers provide training to each driver providing paratransit service to persons with disabilities that meet requirements established by the APD. The bill requires each transportation service provider to provide each driver with access to third-party training materials that meet such requirements.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2025.
