ANALYSIS

EFFECT OF THE BILL:

Care Provider Background Screening Clearinghouse

The Care Provider Background Screening Clearinghouse (Clearinghouse) is a single statewide screening program, administered by the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA), which retains fingerprint data to streamline repeated background screenings and allow the results of criminal history checks of persons acting as covered care providers to be shared among specified agencies. Beginning January 1, 2026, current law will allow AHCA to also share the results of criminal history checks with qualified entities.

The bill requires AHCA, in consultation with the specified agencies, to develop and maintain a publicly available webpage that provides care provider background screening education and awareness. The webpage may be part of the Clearinghouse. Under the bill, the education awareness resources available on the webpage must be written in nontechnical and accessible language, tailored to the qualified entities. (Section 1). The resources must include, but are not limited to:

- Information and education related to employment screening requirements of qualified entities, to include:
 - The Clearinghouse;
 - Level 2 screening standards; and
 - Live-scan fingerprinting, or other third-party systems, including information on process, vendors, location, and potential costs.
- A searchable catalog, by specified agency, of qualified entity employment classes and positions required by law to undergo employment screening through the Clearinghouse, to include:
 - Disqualifying offenses; and
 - Exemption requirements and process.

STORAGE NAME: h0531e.HHS

DATE: 4/22/2025

- A downloadable checklist detailing the process, timelines, and contact information for employment screening process support, tailored to qualified entities.

The bill requires each specified agency to include a clear and conspicuous link to the webpage on its website and provide the link in all job vacancy advertisements and posts by the qualified entity. (Section 1)

The webpage must be active by January 1, 2026 and AHCA must review and update the info by October 1, 2026, and by October 1 each year thereafter, to incorporate any changes to law, the Clearinghouse, or the employment screening process. (Section 1)

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2025. (Section 2)

FISCAL OR ECONOMIC IMPACT:

STATE GOVERNMENT:

AHCA estimates the cost to comply with the bill is $223,908 ($205,682/recurring, $18,266/nonrecurring). AHCA will use the funds to hire additional staff within the Background Screening Unit to oversee the implementation, facilitation, and upkeep of the website.¹

These costs can be absorbed within current resources.

SUBJECT OVERVIEW:

Criminal Background Screening

Under current law, certain professions and employment settings² are subject to criminal background screening and licensure or employment disqualification for certain past criminal offenses. Chapter 435, F.S., establishes procedures and requirements for criminal history background screening. There are two levels of background screening: Level 1 and Level 2.

- Level 1: Screening includes, at a minimum, employment history checks and statewide criminal correspondence checks through the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) and a check of the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Public Website,³ and may include criminal records checks through local law enforcement agencies.⁴
- Level 2: Screening includes, at a minimum, fingerprinting for statewide criminal history records checks through FDLE and national criminal history checks through the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and may include local criminal records checks through local law enforcement agencies.⁵

Disqualifying Offenses

Individuals subject to background screening are disqualified from certain employment and licensure if they have been arrested for and are awaiting final disposition of, been found guilty of regardless of adjudication, entered a

Any history of a listed offense is considered disqualifying regardless of when the offense was committed.

Exemptions

For individuals who are disqualified from employment due to their criminal history, current law includes an exemption process. An exemption allows that individual to be employed in a profession or workplace where background screening is statutorily required despite the disqualifying offense in that person's past if that person meets certain criteria. The individual must demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that they have been rehabilitated, will not present a danger, and should not be disqualified from employment.⁷ The agency head may grant the exemption from disqualification if all court ordered fees, fines, liens, applications, costs of prosecution, trusts, or restitution have been paid, and either:⁸

- Two years have elapsed since the individual has completed or been lawfully released from confinement supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by a court for a disqualifying felony; or
- The individual has completed or been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by a court for a misdemeanor or an offense that was a felony at the time of commission but is now a misdemeanor.

⁷ S. 435.07, F.S.

⁸ Id.

Receiving an exemption allows that individual to work despite the disqualifying crime in that person's past. However, an individual who is considered a sexual predator,⁹ career offender,¹⁰ or a registered sexual offender¹¹ is not eligible for exemption.¹²

Care Provider Background Screening Clearinghouse

The Care Provider Background Screening Clearinghouse (Clearinghouse) is a single statewide screening program, administered by AHCA, in consultation with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE), which allows for results of criminal history checks of persons acting as covered care providers to be shared among specified agencies.¹³ The Clearinghouse allows for constant review of new criminal history information through the federal Rap Back Service,¹⁴ which continually matches fingerprints retained in the Clearinghouse against fingerprints received for new arrests that occur after the individual was originally screened.¹⁵ Once a person's screening record is in the Clearinghouse, that person may avoid the need for any future state screens and related fees for screenings, depending on the screening agencies or organizations.¹⁶

The Clearinghouse is authorized to share background screening results with specified agencies and qualified entities that are conducting state and national criminal history background screening on persons who work with children or persons who are elderly or disabled. The specified agencies currently outlined in law include:¹⁷

- AHCA;
- Department of Health;
- Department of Children and Families;
- Department of Elderly Affairs;
- Department of Juvenile Justice;
- Agency for Persons with Disabilities;
- Department of Education, and related entities including district units, special district units, the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind, the Florida Virtual School, virtual instruction programs, charter schools, hope operators, private schools participating in certain scholarship programs, and alternative schools;
- Regional workforce development boards; and
- Local licensing agencies responsible for licensing child care providers.

Beginning no earlier than January 1, 2026, the Clearinghouse may share results of criminal history checks with other entities participating in the Clearinghouse, referred to as "qualified entities."¹⁸ These are businesses or organizations which provide care or care placement services for children or vulnerable adults, such as a youth athletics teams under an independent sanctioning authority.¹⁹ A qualified entity participating in the Clearinghouse must register and maintain the employment or affiliation status of all persons included in the Clearinghouse.²⁰
