12 substituted service is otherwise authorized by law before using 13 substituted service under this section. The party effectuating 14 service does not need to allege in its original or amended 15 complaint the facts required to be set forth in the affidavit of 16 compliance.

17 (4) (3) When an individual or a business entity conceals its whereabouts, the party seeking to effectuate service may, after 18 19 exercising due diligence to locate and effectuate personal 20 service, may use substituted service pursuant to subsection (1) 21 in connection with any action in which the court has 22 jurisdiction over such individual or business entity. The party 23 seeking to effectuate service must also comply with subsection 24 (3) (2); however, a return receipt or other proof showing 25 acceptance of receipt of the notice of service and a copy of the process by the concealed party need not be filed. 26

(5) (4) The party effectuating service is considered to have used due diligence if that party:

(a) Made diligent inquiry and exerted an honest and conscientious effort appropriate to the circumstances to acquire the information necessary to effectuate personal service;

(b) In seeking to effectuate personal service, reasonably employed the knowledge at the party's command, including knowledge obtained pursuant to paragraph (a); and

(c) Made an appropriate number of attempts to serve the party, taking into account the particular circumstances, during such times when and where such party is reasonably likely to be found, as determined through resources reasonably available to the party seeking to secure service of process.
