Unless exempted, a person commits a third degree felony under s. 934.425, F.S., if he or she knowingly installs or places a tracking device³ or tracking application⁴ on another person's property without that person's consent, or uses a tracking device or tracking application to determine the location or movement of another person or another person's property without that person's consent.

Section 934.425, F.S., specifies that the prohibition does not apply to:

- A law enforcement officer as defined in s. 943.10, F.S., or any local, state, federal, or military law enforcement agency, that lawfully installs, places, or uses a tracking device or tracking application on another person's property as part of a criminal investigation;
- A parent or legal guardian of a minor child who installs, places, or uses a tracking device or tracking application on the minor child's property if:
 - The parents or legal guardians are lawfully married to each other and are not separated or otherwise living apart, and either parent or legal guardian consents to the installation, placement, or use of the tracking device or tracking application;
 - The parent or legal guardian is the sole surviving parent or legal guardian of the minor child;
 - The parent or legal guardian has sole custody of the minor child; or
 - The parents or legal guardians are divorced, separated, or otherwise living apart and both consent to the installation, placement, or use of the tracking device or tracking application;
- A caregiver of an elderly person or disabled adult, as those terms are defined in s. 825.101, F.S., if the elderly person's or disabled adult's treating physician certifies that the installation or placement of a tracking device or tracking application onto the elderly person's or disabled adult's property or use of a tracking device or tracking application to determine the location or movement of an elderly person or disabled adult is necessary to ensure the safety of the elderly person or disabled adult;
- A person acting in good faith on behalf of a business entity for a legitimate business purpose, except for persons engaged in private investigation, as defined in s. 493.6101, F.S.;⁵ or
- An owner or lessee of a motor vehicle that installs, places, or uses, or directs the installation, placement, or use of, a tracking device or tracking application on such vehicle during the period of ownership or lease, provided that:
 - The tracking device or tracking application is removed before the vehicle's title is transferred or the vehicle's lease expires;
 - The new owner or lessor of the vehicle consents in writing for the tracking device or tracking application to remain installed; or
 - The owner of the vehicle at the time of the installation or placement of the tracking device or tracking application was the original manufacturer of the vehicle and the next owner of the vehicle was informed of the location and how to remove the device before the vehicle title is transferred.⁶

Additionally, s. 934.425, F.S., specifies that a person's consent to be tracked is presumed to be revoked if:

- The consenting person and the person to whom consent was given are lawfully married and one person files a petition for dissolution of marriage from the other; or
- The consenting person or the person to whom consent was given files an injunction for protection against the other person pursuant to s. 741.30, F.S., relating to domestic violence, s. 741.315, F.S., relating to foreign
