88 taxable year, adjusted as follows:

89 (a) Additions.—There shall be added to such taxable

91 1.a. The amount of any tax upon or measured by income,

98 added to taxable income in a previous taxable year under
99 subparagraph 11. and is taken as a deduction for federal tax
100 purposes in the current taxable year, the amount of the 101 deduction allowed shall not be added to taxable income in the 102 current year. The exception in this sub-subparagraph is intended 103 to ensure that the credit under s. 220.1875, s. 220.1876, s.
104 220.1877, or s. 220.1878 is added in the applicable taxable year

115 3. In the case of a regulated investment company or real 116 estate investment trust, an amount equal to the excess of the 117 net long-term capital gain for the taxable year over the amount
118 of the capital gain dividends attributable to the taxable year.

119 4. That portion of the wages or salaries paid or incurred
120 for the taxable year which is equal to the amount of the credit

11. Any amount taken as a credit for the taxable year under s. 220.1875, s. 220.1876, s. 220.1877, or s. 220.1878. The addition in this subparagraph is intended to ensure that the same amount is not allowed for the tax purposes of this state as both a deduction from income and a credit against the tax. This addition is not intended to result in adding the same expense back to income more than once.

12. The amount taken as a credit for the taxable year under s. 220.193.

13. The amount taken as a credit for the taxable year under s. 220.196. The addition in this subparagraph is intended to ensure that the same amount is not allowed for the tax purposes of this state as both a deduction from income and a credit against the tax. d. The excess contributions deductions allowable for federal income tax purposes under s. 404 of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year.

However, a net operating loss and a capital loss shall never be carried back as a deduction to a prior taxable year, but all deductions attributable to such losses shall be deemed net operating loss carryovers and capital loss carryovers,

187 respectively, and treated in the same manner, to the same
188 extent, and for the same time periods as are prescribed for such 189 carryovers in ss. 172 and 1212, respectively, of the Internal 190 Revenue Code. A deduction is not allowed for net operating 191 losses, net capital losses, or excess contribution deductions
192 under 26 U.S.C. ss. 170(d)(2), 172, 1212, and 404 for a member

196 172, 1212, and 404 may be subtracted only by the member of the 197 unitary combined group which generates a carryover.

198 2. There shall be subtracted from such taxable income any 199 amount to the extent included therein the following:

200 a. Dividends treated as received from sources without the 201 United States, as determined under s. 862 of the Internal 202 Revenue Code.

203 b. All amounts included in taxable income under s. 78, s.
204 951, or s. 951A of the Internal Revenue Code.

205
206 However, any amount subtracted under this subparagraph is 207 allowed only to the extent such amount is not deductible in 208 determining federal taxable income. As to any amount subtracted
209 under this subparagraph, there shall be added to such taxable
210 income all expenses deducted on the taxpayer's return for the 211 taxable year which are attributable, directly or indirectly, to

212 such subtracted amount. Further, no amount shall be subtracted 213 with respect to dividends paid or deemed paid by a Domestic 214 International Sales Corporation.

215 3. Amounts received by a member of a unitary combined
216 group as dividends paid by another member of the unitary 217 combined group must be subtracted from the taxable income to the 218 extent that the dividends are included in the taxable income.

219 ~~4.3.~~ In computing "adjusted federal income" for taxable
220 years beginning after December 31, 1976, there shall be allowed
221 as a deduction the amount of wages and salaries paid or incurred
222 within this state for the taxable year for which no deduction is 223 allowed pursuant to s. 280C(a) of the Internal Revenue Code
224 (relating to credit for employment of certain new employees).

225 ~~5.4.~~ There shall be subtracted from such taxable income
226 any amount of nonbusiness income included therein.

227 ~~6.5.~~ There shall be subtracted any amount of taxes of 228 foreign countries allowable as credits for taxable years
229 beginning on or after September 1, 1985, under s. 901 of the 230 Internal Revenue Code to any corporation which derived less than 231 20 percent of its gross income or loss for its taxable year
232 ended in 1984 from sources within the United States, as 233 described in s. 861(a)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, not 234 including credits allowed under ss. 902 and 960 of the Internal 235 Revenue Code, withholding taxes on dividends within the meaning of sub-subparagraph 2.a., and withholding taxes on royalties, interest, technical service fees, and capital gains.

~~7.6.~~ Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, except with respect to amounts subtracted pursuant to subparagraphs 1. and 3., any increment of any apportionment factor which is directly related to an increment of gross receipts or income which is deducted, subtracted, or otherwise excluded in determining adjusted federal income shall be excluded from both the numerator and denominator of such apportionment factor. Further, all valuations made for apportionment factor purposes shall be made on a basis consistent with the taxpayer's method of accounting for federal income tax purposes.

(c) Installment sales occurring after October 19, 1980.—

1. In the case of any disposition made after October 19, 1980, the income from an installment sale shall be taken into account for the purposes of this code in the same manner that such income is taken into account for federal income tax purposes.

2. Any taxpayer who regularly sells or otherwise disposes of personal property on the installment plan and reports the income therefrom on the installment method for federal income tax purposes under s. 453(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall report such income in the same manner under this code.

(d) Nonallowable deductions.—A deduction for net operating losses, net capital losses, or excess contributions deductions under ss. 170(d)(2), 172, 1212, and 404 of the Internal Revenue Code which has been allowed in a prior taxable year for Florida tax purposes shall not be allowed for Florida tax purposes, notwithstanding the fact that such deduction has not been fully utilized for federal tax purposes.

(e) Adjustments related to federal acts.—Taxpayers shall be required to make the adjustments prescribed in this paragraph for Florida tax purposes with respect to certain tax benefits received pursuant to the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008; the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009; the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010; the Tax Relief, Unemployment Insurance Reauthorization, and Job Creation Act of 2010; the American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012; the Tax Increase Prevention Act of 2014; the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2016; the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017; and the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act of 2020.

b. For the taxable year and for each of the 6 subsequent taxable years, there shall be subtracted from such taxable income an amount equal to one-seventh of the amount by which taxable income was increased pursuant to this subparagraph, notwithstanding any sale or other disposition of the property that is the subject of the adjustments and regardless of whether such property remains in service in the hands of the taxpayer.

c. The provisions of sub-subparagraph b. do not apply to amounts by which taxable income was increased pursuant to this subparagraph for amounts deducted for federal income tax purposes as bonus depreciation for qualified improvement property as defined in s. 168(e)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended by s. 13204 of Pub. of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended by s. 13301 of Pub. L. No. 115-97.

Any expense added back pursuant to this subparagraph shall be treated as a disallowed business expense carryforward from prior years for the year or years following the addition, until such time as the expense has been used.

5. With respect to qualified improvement property as defined in s. 168(e)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended by s. 13204 of Pub. L. No. 115-97, that was placed in service on or after January 1, 2018:

property, as defined in s. 168(e)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

6. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2020, and before January 1, 2026, the changes made to the Internal Revenue Code by Pub. L. No. 116-260, Division EE, Title I, s. 116 and Title II, s. 210 shall not apply to this chapter. Taxable income under this section shall be calculated as though changes made by those sections were not made to the Internal Revenue Code. The Department of Revenue may adopt rules necessary to administer the provisions of this subparagraph, including rules, forms, and guidelines for treatment of expenses and depreciation related to these changes.

7. Subtractions available under this paragraph may be transferred to the surviving or acquiring entity following a merger or acquisition and used in the same manner and with the same limitations as specified by this paragraph.

8. The additions and subtractions specified in this paragraph are intended to adjust taxable income for Florida tax purposes, and, notwithstanding any other provision of this code, such additions and subtractions shall be permitted to change a taxpayer's net operating loss for Florida tax purposes.

the limitations set forth in paragraph (1)(b) with respect to the deductions provided by ss. 172 (relating to net operating losses), 170(d)(2) (relating to excess charitable contributions), 404(a)(1)(D) (relating to excess pension trust contributions), 404(a)(3)(A) and (B) (to the extent relating to excess stock bonus and profit-sharing trust contributions), and 1212 (relating to capital losses) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that, subject to the same limitations, the term:

(f) "Taxable income," in the case of a corporation which is a member of an affiliated group of corporations filing a consolidated income tax return for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes, means taxable income of such corporation for federal income tax purposes as if such corporation had filed a separate federal income tax return for the taxable year and each preceding taxable year for which it was a member of an affiliated group, ~~unless a consolidated return for the taxpayer and others is required or elected under s. 220.131;~~

Section 53. Section 220.131, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

Section 54. Section 220.136, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

220.136 Determination of the members of a unitary combined group.—A corporation having 50 percent or more of its outstanding voting stock directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a unitary combined group is a member of the unitary combined group. A corporation having less than 50 percent of its outstanding voting stock directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a unitary combined group is a member of the unitary combined group if the business activities of the corporation show that the corporation is a member of the unitary combined group. All of the income of a corporation that is a member of a unitary combined group is unitary. For purposes of this section, the attribution rules of 26 U.S.C. s. 318 must be used to determine whether voting stock is indirectly owned.

604289

Amendment No.

Section 55. Section 220.1363, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

220.1363 Unitary combined groups; special requirements.—

(1) For purposes of this section, the term "unitary combined reporting method" means a method used to determine the taxable business profits of a group of entities conducting a unitary business. Under this method, the net income of the entities must be added together, along with the additions and subtractions under s. 220.13, and apportioned to this state as a single taxpayer under ss. 220.15 and 220.151. However, each special industry member included in a unitary combined group return, which would otherwise be permitted to use a special method of apportionment under s. 220.151, shall convert its single-factor apportionment to a three-factor apportionment of property, payroll, and sales. The special industry member shall calculate the denominator of its property, payroll, and sales factors in the same manner as those denominators are calculated by members that are not special industry members. The numerator of its sales, property, and payroll factors is the product of the denominator of each factor multiplied by the premiums or revenue-miles-factor ratio otherwise applicable under s. 220.151.

604289

Approved For Filing: 4/23/2025 2:44:56 PM

Amendment No.

(2) All members of a unitary combined group must use the unitary combined reporting method, under which:

(a) Adjusted federal income, for purposes of s. 220.12, means the sum of adjusted federal income of all members of the unitary combined group as determined for a concurrent taxable year.

(b) The numerators and denominators of the apportionment factors must be calculated for all members of the unitary combined group combined.

(c) Intercompany sales transactions between members of the unitary combined group are not included in the numerator or denominator of the sales factor under ss. 220.15 and 220.151, regardless of whether indicia of a sale exist.

(d) For sales of intangibles, including, but not limited to, accounts receivable, notes, bonds, and stock, which are made to entities outside the group, only the net proceeds are included in the numerator and denominator of the sales factor.

604289

Approved For Filing: 4/23/2025 2:44:56 PM

Amendment No.

458 As used in this subsection, the term "sale" includes, but is not 459 limited to, loans, payments for the use of intangibles,
460 dividends, and management fees.

461 (3) (a) If a parent corporation is a member of the unitary
462 combined group and has nexus with this state, a single unitary 463 combined group return must be filed in the name and under the 464 federal employer identification number of the parent
465 corporation. If the unitary combined group does not have a 466 parent corporation, if the parent corporation is not a member of 467 the unitary combined group, or if the parent corporation does
468 not have nexus with this state, the members of the unitary
469 combined group must choose a member subject to the tax imposed
470 by this chapter to file the return. The members of the unitary 471 combined group may not choose another member to file a corporate 472 income tax return in subsequent years unless the filing member
473 does not maintain nexus with this state or does not remain a
474 member of the unitary combined group. The return must be signed 475 by an authorized officer of the filing member as the agent for 476 the unitary combined group.

477 (b) If members of a unitary combined group have different 478 taxable years, the taxable year of a majority of the members of 479 the unitary combined group is the taxable year of the unitary 480 combined group. If the taxable years of a majority of the
