ANALYSIS

EFFECT OF THE BILL:

The bill provides an exemption for individuals employed as school social workers from the demonstration of mastery of general knowledge and subject area knowledge requirements for educator certification. The bill is limited to those individuals employed by the school district as social workers and both licensure as a social worker and the educator certification specialization for school social workers require that an individual have a master's degree or higher in social work as well as requisite field work. Therefore, the receipt of state licensure and the educator certification specialization could be deemed the demonstration of mastery currently required by the general knowledge and subject matter requirements. (Section 1).

The effective date of the bill is July 1, 2025. (Section 2).

FISCAL OR ECONOMIC IMPACT:

STATE GOVERNMENT:

The bill has an indeterminate negative fiscal impact on state revenues due to the loss of examination fees from the general knowledge examination from school social workers seeking educator certification.

PRIVATE SECTOR:

The bill has an indeterminate positive fiscal impact on private sector expenditures due to school social workers seeking their educator certification no longer being required to pay examination fees for the general knowledge exam and the subject area examination designated by the DOE while.

SUBJECT OVERVIEW:

Licensure of Social Workers in Florida

In Florida, the social work profession is under the oversight of the Florida Department of Health, specifically the Board of Clinical Social Work, Marriage and Family Therapy and Mental Health Counseling (CSW Board).¹ The CSW Board was legislatively established to ensure that every clinical social worker, marriage and family therapist, and mental health counselor practicing in this state meet minimum requirements for safe practice. The CSW Board is responsible for licensing, monitoring, disciplining and educating clinical social workers, marriage and family therapists, and mental health counselors to assure competency and safety to practice in Florida.²

The CSW Board offers three licenses for social workers: registered clinical social worker intern,³ licensed clinical social worker by examination,⁴ and certified master social worker.⁵ All three licenses require, among other requirements, a master's degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education accredited school of social work showing graduate level coursework.⁶

Educator Certification

In order for a person to serve as an educator in a traditional public school, charter school, virtual school, or other publicly operated school, the person must hold a certificate issued by the DOE.⁷ Persons seeking employment at a public school as a school supervisor, principal, teacher, library media specialist, counselor, athletic coach, or in other instructional capacity must be certified.⁸ The purpose of certification is to require school-based personnel to "possess the credentials, knowledge, and skills necessary to allow the opportunity for a high-quality education in the public schools."⁹

The DOE issues three main types of educator certificates:

- Professional Certificate: The professional certificate is Florida's highest type of full-time educator certification.¹⁰ The professional certificate is valid for 5 years and is renewable.¹¹
- Temporary Certificate: The temporary certificate covers employment in full-time positions for which educator certification is required.¹² Generally, a temporary certificate is valid for 5 years and is nonrenewable.¹³
