Senator Rodriguez moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this act, paragraph (j) of subsection (1) of section 212.05, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

10 212.05 Sales, storage, use tax.—It is hereby declared to be 11 the legislative intent that every person is exercising a taxable

12 privilege who engages in the business of selling tangible 13 personal property at retail in this state, including the 14 business of making or facilitating remote sales; who rents or 15 furnishes any of the things or services taxable under this chapter; or who stores for use or consumption in this state any 16 17 item or article of tangible personal property as defined herein 18 and who leases or rents such property within the state. 19 (1) For the exercise of such privilege, a tax is levied on 20 each taxable transaction or incident, which tax is due and 21 payable as follows: 22 (j)1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, 23 there is hereby levied a tax on the sale, use, consumption, or 24 storage for use in this state of any coin or currency, whether 25 in circulation or not, when such coin or currency: a. Is not legal tender; 26 27 If legal tender, is sold, exchanged, or traded at a rate b. 28 in excess of its face value; or 29 c. Is sold, exchanged, or traded at a rate based on its precious metal content. 30 2. Such tax shall be at a rate of 6 percent of the price at 31 32 which the coin or currency is sold, exchanged, or traded, except 33 that, with respect to a coin or currency that which is legal tender of the United States or any gold coin or silver coin 34 35 recognized as legal tender in this state pursuant to s. 215.986 36 and that which is sold, exchanged, or traded, such tax shall not 37 be levied. The person who claims the sales tax exemption bears 38 the burden of determining whether the gold coin or silver coin 39 meets the definitions provided in s. 215.986. In the absence of 40 evidence to the contrary, there is a presumption that the gold

41 coin or silver coin meets the percent purity requirements 42 provided in s. 215.986 based upon: 43 a. The purity imprinted or stamped on the gold coin or silver coin; or 44 b. An electronic transfer, as defined in s. 215.986(1)(b), 45 46 of a gold coin or silver coin or any fraction thereof. 47 3. There are exempt from this tax exchanges of coins or currency which are in general circulation in, and legal tender 48 of, one nation for coins or currency which are in general 49 50 circulation in, and legal tender of, another nation when 51 exchanged solely for use as legal tender and at an exchange rate 52 based on the relative value of each as a medium of exchange. 53 4. With respect to any transaction that involves the sale 54 of coins or currency taxable under this paragraph in which the taxable amount represented by the sale of such coins or currency 55 56 exceeds $500, the entire amount represented by the sale of such 57 coins or currency is exempt from the tax imposed under this 58 paragraph. The dealer must maintain proper documentation, as 59 prescribed by rule of the department, to identify that portion 60 of a transaction which involves the sale of coins or currency 61 and is exempt under this subparagraph. 62 Section 2. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and 63 64 the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this 65 act, section 215.986, Florida Statutes, is created to read: 66 215.986 Gold and silver coin as legal tender.-67 (1) DEFINITIONS.-As used in this section, the term: 68 (a) "Debt" means an obligation for the payment of money 69 under express contract.

70 (b) "Electronic transfer" means any instruction, other than 71 a transaction by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, 72 which is initiated through debit card, mobile application, or 73 computer to order, instruct, or authorize a financial 74 institution as defined in s. 655.005(1)(i) or a money services 75 business as defined in s. 560.103 to debit or credit an account 76 with gold coin or silver coin or any fraction thereof, or the equivalent coin or currency of the United States or foreign 77 78 currency converted at current market price. An "electronic transfer" includes, but is not limited to, an instruction in a 79 80 debit card transaction that authorizes the debit or credit of an 81 account in a single, integrated step at the point of sale. 82 (c) "Gold coin" means a precious metal with the chemical 83 element of atomic number 79 in solid form, in the shape of 84 rounds, bars, ingots, or bullion coins, which is valued for its 85 metal content and stamped or imprinted with its weight and 86 purity and which solid form of chemical element atomic number 79 87 consists of at least 99.5 percent purity. The term does not include any goods as defined in s. 672.105(1), such as jewelry, 88 89 other items of utility, such as picture frames, or collectables. 90 (d) "Governmental entity" means a state, regional, county, municipal, special district, or other political subdivision, 91 92 whether executive, judicial, or legislative, including, but not 93 limited to, a department, a division, a board, a bureau, a 94 commission, an authority, a district, or an agency thereof, or a 95 public school, a Florida College System institution, a state 96 university, or an associated board. 97 (e) "Legal tender" means a medium of exchange recognized by this state pursuant to s. 10, Art. I of the United States 98

99 Constitution as a valid and legal offer of payment for debts 100 when tendered to a creditor that agrees to receive such medium 101 of exchange.

(f) "Silver coin" means a precious metal with the chemical element of atomic number 47 in solid form, in the shape of rounds, bars, ingots, or bullion coins, which is valued for its metal content and is stamped or imprinted with its weight and purity and which solid form of chemical element atomic number 47 consists of at least 99.9 percent purity. The term does not mean any goods as defined in s. 672.105(1), such as jewelry, other items of utility, such as picture frames, or collectables.

(2) LEGAL TENDER.-Gold coin and silver coin that meet the requirements of this section are recognized as legal tender by this state for the payment of debts incurred on or after July 1, 2026.

114 (a) Gold coin or silver coin recognized as legal tender in 115 this section may not be imprinted, stamped, or otherwise marked with any name, symbol, or other information or design, 116 117 including, but not limited to, any suggestion that such coin has 118 been minted or issued by any government, except that such coin 119 must be imprinted, stamped, or otherwise marked with the coin's 120 weight and purity and may be imprinted, stamped, or otherwise 121 marked with the name or symbol that identifies any refiner or 122 mint of the gold coin or silver coin. A gold coin or silver coin 123 that does not meet the requirements of this paragraph is not 124 recognized as legal tender for the payment of debts in this 125 state.

126(b) This section may not be construed to restrict the127electronic transfer of gold coin or silver coin as tender for 128 the payment of a debt.

(c) This section may not be construed as altering the legal tender status of any United States coins or currency that has been prescribed as legal tender under federal law. Such coins or currency do not fall within the scope of this section and this section does not reauthorize or redesignate such coins or currency as legal tender. To the extent that any gold coin or silver coin minted or issued by the United States or a foreign government falls within the definitions in this section, federal law recognizing whether the foreign or United States minted or issued coins are legal tender, including any United States coins denominated in United States dollars, shall prevail.

(d) This section may not be construed to prohibit or limit the tender, acceptance, or use of Federal Reserve notes in the payment of debts.

(e) A person or an entity, including any governmental entity, may not be required to offer or accept any recognized legal tender as described in this subsection for the payment of a debt, deposit, or any other purpose. A person or an entity, including any governmental entity, may not incur any liability for refusing to offer or accept such legal tender, except as specifically provided for by contract.

(3) GOVERNMENT IMPLEMENTATION.—A governmental entity may accept gold coin or silver coin for the payment of taxes, charges, or dues levied by the state or local government or any subdivision thereof. However, a governmental entity may tender or accept gold coin or silver coin as payment for debts, taxes, charges, or dues only by electronic transfer and may not tender or accept gold coin or silver coin in physical form.

157	(a) Each governmental entity that chooses to tender or to
158	accept payment of gold coin or silver coin must enter into a
159	written contract procured through competitive bidding with a
160	qualified public depository as defined in s. 280.02.
161	(b) Unless otherwise provided in chapter 280, a custodian
162	of gold coin or silver coin as defined in s. 560.103 which holds
163	gold coin or silver coin as public deposits must meet the
164	requirements for a qualified public depository under chapter
165	280.
166	(c) A governmental entity that tenders or accepts gold coin
167	or silver coin as payment of debts, taxes, charges, and dues by
168	one of the exemptions listed in s. 280.03(3) need not comply
169	with this subsection for purposes of tendering or accepting such
170	gold coin or silver coin.
171	Section 3. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative
172	ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and
173	the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this
174	act, section 280.21, Florida Statutes, is created to read:
175	280.21 Custodians of gold coin and silver coin
176	(1) A custodian of gold coin or silver coin as defined in
177	s. 560.103 which holds public deposits must do all of the
178	following:
179	(a) Meet the definition of a qualified public depository as
180	defined in s. 280.02, except that such custodian is not required
181	to be insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or
182	the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund for purposes of
183	holding gold coin or silver coin as defined in s. 215.986. Such
184	custodian must maintain insurance as prescribed in s. 560.214.
185	(b) Comply with all other applicable qualified public

186 depository requirements and be subject to the provisions of this 187 chapter.

188 (2) The Chief Financial Officer shall adopt rules to 189 implement this section.

190 Section 4. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative 191 ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this 192 act, present subsections (13) through (19), (20) through (34), and (35) and (36) of section 560.103, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as subsections (14) through (20), (22) through 196 (36), and (38) and (39), respectively, new subsections (13) and 197 (21) and subsection (37) are added to that section, and present subsections (18) and (24) of that section are amended, to read:

560.103 Definitions.-As used in this chapter, the term:

(13) "Custodian of gold coin or silver coin" or "custodian" means any person or entity providing secure vault facilities to one or more persons for the safekeeping and storage of gold coin or silver coin, the ownership of which is or may be transferred electronically as defined in s. 215.986(1). The term includes any person who holds gold coin or silver coin for more than 10 days. The term does not include a person who holds gold coin or silver coin for personal use as legal tender.

208 (19) (18) "Foreign currency exchanger" means a person who 209 exchanges, for compensation, currency of the United States or a 210 foreign government, gold coin, or silver coin to currency of 211 another government.

(21) "Gold coin" has the same meaning as in s. 215.986(1)(c).

(26) (24) "Money transmitter" means a corporation, limited

215 liability company, limited liability partnership, or foreign 216 entity qualified to do business in this state which:

217 (a) Receives currency, monetary value, a payment instrument, gold coin, silver coin, or virtual currency for the 218 purpose of acting as an intermediary to transmit currency, 219 220 monetary value, a payment instrument, gold coin, silver coin, or 221 virtual currency from one person to another location or person 222 by any means, including transmission by wire, facsimile, 223 electronic transfer, courier, the Internet, or through bill 224 payment services or other businesses that facilitate such transfer within this country, or to or from this country. The 225 226 term includes only an intermediary that has the ability to 227 unilaterally execute or indefinitely prevent a transaction; or

(b) Acts as a custodian of gold coin or silver coin. (37) "Silver coin" has the same meaning as in s. 215.986(1)(f).

Section 5. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this act, subsection (1) of section 560.109, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

236 560.109 Examinations and investigations.-The office may 237 conduct examinations and investigations, within or outside this 238 state to determine whether a person has violated any provision 239 of this chapter and related rules, or of any practice or conduct 240 that creates the likelihood of material loss, insolvency, or 241 dissipation of the assets of a money services business or 242 otherwise materially prejudices the interests of their 243 customers.

274	transmitting, storing, exchanging, or accepting payment in gold
275	coin or silver coin. To the extent that a money services
276	business offers such products or services, the money services
277	business must do all of the following, as applicable:
278	(a) Except as provided in s. 560.214, maintain separate
279	accounts for any gold coin or silver coin and not commingle such
280	gold coin or silver coin with any other accounts that hold coin
281	or currency of the United States or of another country.
282	(b) Insure the gold coin or silver coin, if not otherwise
283	insured by an independent custodian of gold coin or silver coin
284	pursuant to s. 560.214(1)(i), for 100 percent of the full
285	replacement value under an all-risk insurance policy issued by a
286	nongovernmental operated insurer that is an authorized insurer
287	or eligible surplus lines insurer.
288	(c) Securely store and safeguard all physical gold coin or
289	silver coin with a custodian of gold coin or silver coin within
290	this state.
291	(d) Ensure that any gold coin or silver coin that is
292	purchased for use or circulation as legal tender is from an
293	accredited refiner or wholesaler as prescribed by commission
294	rule which certifies that the gold coin or silver coin being
295	purchased meets the requirements of gold coin and silver coin.
296	(e) Make disclosures to a customer at the inception of the
297	relationship for providing products or services relating to gold
298	coin or silver coin before a customer initially purchases or
299	uses a money services business product or service relating to
300	such coin, prescribed on a form adopted by the commission. The
301	commission must adopt rules to prescribe the general form of

302	such disclosures. Such disclosures must include, at a minimum,
303	all of the following:
304	1. Notice that the value of gold coin or silver coin will
305	fluctuate over time and that such customer should seek
306	professional advice about whether transacting in gold coin or
307	silver coin may incur a federal capital gains tax.
308	2. Notice of potential fees that may be incurred for
309	converting gold coin or silver coin to United States dollars or
310	other currency, or any other transaction fees that may be
311	incurred which can be incorporated by referencing the company's
312	terms and conditions.
313	3. Any additional disclosures the commission deems
314	necessary for the protection of any person or entity that
315	tenders or accepts gold coin or silver coin for the payment of
316	debts, taxes, charges, or dues.
317	(f) Provide transparent contracts, products, services,
318	storage terms, and fees, including, but not limited to,
319	purchase, sale, conversion, storage, delivery, transaction, or
320	other fees. The spot rate at which any gold coin or silver coin
321	is converted must be disclosed at the time that the gold coin or
322	silver coin is converted.
323	(g) Comply with chain of custody requirements, as
324	prescribed by commission rule.
325	(h) Comply with all other applicable state and federal laws
326	and regulations.
327	(2) The commission must adopt rules to implement this
328	section.

476	to United States currency at the market rate at the time the
477	request is received by such custodian;
478	4. The owner may direct that any or all of his or her
479	holdings of gold coin or silver coin be converted to United
480	States currency and be delivered to the owner within 5 business
481	days after a request; and
482	5. The owner and the custodian may agree on any other terms
483	of delivery provided such terms meet the minimum requirements
484	provided in this paragraph.
485	(d) Within 10 business days after a request, make available
486	to an owner a copy of any audit report required pursuant to
487	paragraph (1)(h) which has been completed within the most recent
488	2 calendar year period.
489	(e) Not disclose information relating to an account holder,
490	including, but not limited to, the account holder's identity,
491	account balances, account transactions, or other related data,
492	except under any of the following circumstances:
493	1. The disclosure is made with the express written consent
494	of the account holder.
495	2. The disclosure is made pursuant to a court order or a
496	subpoena issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in a civil
497	or criminal proceeding.
498	3. The disclosure is otherwise authorized or required by
499	state or federal law.
500
501	Any information obtained in violation of this paragraph is
502	inadmissible in any proceeding if a timely objection is made. A
503	subcontractor or agent of a custodian of gold coin or silver
504	coin may not disclose any information relating to an account

505	holder, including, but not limited to, the account holder's
506	identity, account balances, account transactions, or other
507	related data, except under the circumstances described in
508	subparagraph 1., subparagraph 2., or subparagraph 3.
509	(3) A custodian is a fiduciary to its customers.
510	(4) Transmission of gold coin or silver coin by a custodian
511	to or from its customer is a two-party transaction for which the
512	office has jurisdiction.
513	(5) The commission must adopt rules to implement this
514	section.
515	Section 10. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative
516	ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and
517	the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this
518	act, paragraph (e) of subsection (3) of section 655.50, Florida
519	Statutes, is amended to read:
520	655.50 Florida Control of Money Laundering and Terrorist
521	Financing in Financial Institutions Act
522	(3) As used in this section, the term:
523	(e) "Monetary instruments" means coin or currency of the
524	United States or of any other country, travelers' checks,
525	personal checks, bank checks, money orders, stored value cards,
526	prepaid cards, gold coin or silver coin as defined in s.
527	215.986, investment securities or negotiable instruments in
528	bearer form or otherwise in such form that title thereto passes
529	upon delivery, or similar devices.
530	Section 11. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative
531	ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and
532	the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this
533	act, section 655.97, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

534	655.97 Gold and silver coin as legal tender
535	(1) As used in this section, the term:
536	(a) "Custodian of gold coin or silver coin" or "custodian"
537	has the same meaning as in s. 560.103(13).
538	(b) "Electronic transfer" has the same meaning as in s.
539	215.986(1)(b).
540	(c) "Gold coin" has the same meaning as in s.
541	215.986(1)(c).
542	(d) "Receive deposits" means the taking of gold coin or
543	silver coin to be credited to a new or existing account.
544	(e) "Silver coin" has the same meaning as in s.
545	215.986(1)(f).
546	(2) As provided in s. 215.986(2)(e), a financial
547	institution may not be required to offer any products or
548	services relating to gold coin or silver coin, including, but
549	not limited to, taking any of the following actions:
550	(a) Receiving deposits consisting of gold coin or silver
551	coin, whether in physical form or by electronic transfer.
552	(b) Exchanging gold coin or silver coin for coin or
553	currency of the United States or of another country.
554	(3) A financial institution may not incur any liability for
555	refusing to offer products or services relating to gold coin or
556	silver coin as provided in subsection (1), except as
557	specifically provided by contract.
558	(4) To the extent that a financial institution accepts gold
559	coin or silver coin deposits or otherwise holds such coin on
560	behalf of its customers, members, or the public, the financial
561	institution must do all of the following:
562	(a) Except as provided in s. 560.214, maintain separate

592 relationship for providing products or services relating to gold 593 coin or silver coin before a customer initially purchases or 594 uses a product or service relating to such coin, prescribed on a 595 form adopted by the commission. The commission must adopt rules to prescribe the general form of such disclosures. Such 596 597 disclosures must include, at a minimum, all of the following: 598 1. Notice that the value of gold coin or silver coin will 599 fluctuate over time and that such customer should seek professional advice about whether transacting in gold coin or 600 601 silver coin may incur a federal capital gains tax. 602 2. Notice of potential fees that may be incurred for 603 converting gold coin or silver coin to United States dollars or 604 other currency, or any other transaction fees that may be 605 incurred which can be incorporated by referencing the company's 606 terms and conditions. 607 3. Any additional disclosures the commission deems 608 necessary for the protection of any person or entity that tenders or accepts gold coin or silver coin for the payment of 609 610 debts, taxes, charges, or dues. 611 (g) Provide transparent contracts, products, services, 612 storage terms, and fees, including, but not limited to, 613 purchase, sale, conversion, storage, delivery, transaction, or 614 other fees. The spot rate at which any gold coin or silver coin 615 is converted must be disclosed at the time the gold coin or 616 silver coin is converted. (h) Comply with chain of custody requirements, as 617 618 prescribed by commission rule. 619 (i) Comply with all other applicable state and federal 620 regulations.

621 (5) The commission must adopt rules to implement this 622 section. Section 12. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative 623 624 ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and 625 the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this 626 act, subsection (2) of section 672.511, Florida Statutes, is 627 amended to read: 628 672.511 Tender of payment by buyer; payment by check.-629 (2) Tender of payment is sufficient when made by any means 630 or in any manner current in the ordinary course of business unless the seller demands payment in legal tender and gives any 631 632 extension of time reasonably necessary to procure it. As 633 provided in s. 215.986(2)(e), this section may not be construed 634 to compel a person to tender payment in gold coin or silver coin 635 as defined in s. 215.986. Section 13. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative 636 ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and 637 638 the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this 639 act, section 731.1065, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 640 731.1065 Precious metals.-(1) For the purposes of the code, gold coin or silver coin 641 that is legal tender pursuant to s. 215.986 is not tangible 642 643 personal property. Precious metals in any tangible form, which are not legal tender pursuant to s. 215.986 and which are such 644 645 as bullion or coins kept and acquired for their historical, 646 artistic, collectable, or investment value apart from their 647 normal use as legal tender for payment, are tangible personal 648 property. 649 (2) This section is effective on July 1, 2026, for

650 decedents dying on or after July 1, 2026. Section 1 of chapter 2020-67, Laws of Florida, applies to decedents dying before July 651 652 1, 2026 intended to clarify existing law and applies 653 retroactively to all written instruments executed before, on, or 654 after July 1, 2020, as well as all proceedings pending or 655 commenced before, on, or after July 1, 2020, in which the 656 disposition of precious metals in any tangible form has not been 657 finally determined. 658 Section 14. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative 659 ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and 660 the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this 661 act, paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of section 559.952, Florida 662 Statutes, is amended to read: 663 559.952 Financial Technology Sandbox.-664 (4) EXCEPTIONS TO GENERAL LAW AND WAIVERS OF RULE 665 REQUIREMENTS.-(a) Notwithstanding any other law, upon approval of a 666 667 Financial Technology Sandbox application, the following 668 provisions and corresponding rule requirements are not 669 applicable to the licensee during the sandbox period: 670 1. Section 516.03(1), except for the application fee, the 671 investigation fee, the requirement to provide the social 672 security numbers of control persons, evidence of liquid assets 673 of at least $25,000 or documents satisfying the requirements of 674 s. 516.05(10), and the office's authority to investigate the 675 applicant's background. The office may prorate the license 676 renewal fee for an extension granted under subsection (7). 677 2. Section 516.05(1) and (2), except that the office shall 678 investigate the applicant's background.

679	3. Section 560.109, only to the extent that the section
680	requires the office to examine a licensee at least once every 5
681	years.
682	4. Section 560.118(2).
683	5. Section 560.125(1), only to the extent that the
684	subsection would prohibit a licensee from engaging in the
685	business of a money transmitter or payment instrument seller
686	during the sandbox period.
687	6. Section 560.125(2), only to the extent that the
688	subsection would prohibit a licensee from appointing an
689	authorized vendor during the sandbox period. Any authorized
690	vendor of such a licensee during the sandbox period remains
691	liable to the holder or remitter.
692	7. Section 560.128.
693	8. Section 560.141, except for s. 560.141(1)(a)1., 3., 7
694	10. and (b), (c), and (d).
695	9. Section 560.142(1) and (2), except that the office may
696	prorate, but may not entirely eliminate, the license renewal
697	fees in s. 560.143 for an extension granted under subsection
698	(7).
699	10. Section 560.143(2), only to the extent necessary for
700	proration of the renewal fee under subparagraph 9.
701	11. Section 560.204(1), only to the extent that the
702	subsection would prohibit a licensee from engaging in, or
703	advertising that it engages in, the activity of a payment
704	instrument seller or money transmitter during the sandbox
705	period.
706	12. Section 560.205(1)(b) Section 560.205(2) .
707	13. Section 560.208(2).

Page 25 of 32

708	14. Section 560.209, only to the extent that the office may
709	modify, but may not entirely eliminate, the net worth, corporate
710	surety bond, and collateral deposit amounts required under that
711	section. The modified amounts must be in such lower amounts that
712	the office determines to be commensurate with the factors under
713	paragraph (5)(c) and the maximum number of consumers authorized
714	to receive the financial product or service under this section.
715	Section 15. Effective July 1, 2026, upon legislative
716	ratification of rules of the Financial Services Commission and
717	the Chief Financial Officer as provided in section 17 of this
718	act, the Division of Law Revision is directed to:
719	(1) Add s. 560.155, Florida Statutes, as created by this
720	act, to part I of chapter 560, Florida Statutes.
721	(2) Add s. 560.214, Florida Statutes, as created by this
722	act, to part II of chapter 560, Florida Statutes.
723	(3) Rename part II of chapter 560, Florida Statutes,
724	entitled "Payment Instruments and Funds Transmission" as
725	"Payment Instruments, Funds Transmission, and Custodians of Gold
726	and Silver Coin," consisting of ss. 560.203-560.214, Florida
727	Statutes.
728	Section 16. (1) The Department of Financial Services and
729	the Office of Financial Regulation must submit a report by
730	November 1, 2025, to the Governor, the President of the Senate,
731	and the Speaker of the House of Representatives which contains
732	all the following information:
733	(a) The rules adopted by the Financial Services Commission
734	and the rules adopted by the Chief Financial Officer to
735	implement this act.
736	(b) Whether the department intends to tender or accept gold

737 coin or silver coin as payment of debts, taxes, charges, or 738 dues. (c) Whether the department or office anticipates any 739 740 unintended consequences that may harm Florida's economy or its 741 citizens by the implementation of this act. 742 (d) If applicable, an explanation of any challenges that 743 require additional legislation to enable the state to choose to 744 accept gold coin or silver coin as legal tender for payment of 745 debts, taxes, charges, or dues pursuant to s. 215.986, Florida 746 Statutes. The department and office must provide proposed 747 language for potential legislation to address any challenges 748 identified. 749 (e) Any other recommendations to implement this act. The 750 department and office must provide proposed language for 751 additional legislation that is needed to implement this act. 752 Such additional legislation includes, but is not limited to, 753 public records exemption language for the expanded exemption 754 coverage under chapters 560 and 655, Florida Statutes, and 755 language for the expanded application of fees to custodians of 756 gold coin and silver coin in s. 560.141(1)(b), Florida Statutes. 757 (2) This section is effective upon becoming a law. Section 17. (1) The Chief Financial Officer shall adopt 758 759 rules to implement s. 280.21, Florida Statutes, as created by 760 this act. The Financial Services Commission shall adopt rules to 761 implement any provisions in chapter 560, Florida Statutes, or chapter 655, Florida Statutes, as created or amended by this 762 763 act, including, but not limited to, ss. 560.155, 560.214, and 764 655.97, Florida Statutes. Such rules must be adopted by November 765 1, 2025, and submitted to the President of the Senate and
