

1                   A bill to be entitled
2       An act relating to concurrent legislative jurisdiction
3       over United States military installations; creating s.
4       250.031, F.S.; providing that this state may accept 5       the relinquishment of exclusive legislative 6       jurisdiction from the United States over United States
7       military installations located within the boundaries
8       of this state; providing that this state has 9       concurrent legislative jurisdiction with the United 10      States over those United States military
11      installations; providing procedures and requirements
12      therefor; providing an effective date.

13
14   Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

15
16       Section 1.   Section 250.031, Florida Statutes, is created 17   to read:

18       250.031   United States military installations; concurrent
19   legislative jurisdiction.—

20       (1)   This state may accept the relinquishment of exclusive 21   legislative jurisdiction from the United States in accordance 22   with this section. This state has concurrent legislative 23   jurisdiction with the United States over any United States
24   military installation property indicated pursuant to this 25   section for as long as the United States controls the property.

26        (2) The concurrent legislative jurisdiction over a United 27 States military installation under this section is effective
28 upon the Governor's written acceptance of a request filed with 29 the Secretary of State by the principal officer, or other 30 authorized representative who has supervision or control over 31 the military installation under 10 U.S.C. s. 2683, of the 32 military installation where concurrent legislative jurisdiction
33 is sought, relinquishing exclusive legislative jurisdiction and 34 retaining concurrent legislative jurisdiction over the military 35 installation.

36        (3) The Governor may not accept a request filed under 37 subsection (2) unless the request:

38        (a) States the name, position, and legal authority of the 39 individual requesting the cession.

40        (b) Unambiguously states the subject matter for the 41 concurrent legislative jurisdiction request.

42        (c) Describes by metes and bounds the United States
43 military installation subject to the concurrent legislative 44 jurisdiction request.

45        (d) Indicates whether the concurrent legislative 46 jurisdiction request includes future contiguous expansions of 47 land acquired for military purposes.

48        (4) If the Governor accepts a request filed under 49 subsection (2):

50        (a) The Governor's acceptance must state each element of

51 the concurrent legislative jurisdiction request which is 52 accepted.

53 (b) The Governor shall submit the following documents to 54 the appropriate recording office for indexing and submit copies 55 of the following documents to the individual who filed the 56 request for concurrent legislative jurisdiction:

57 1. The request for concurrent legislative jurisdiction.

58 2. The Governor's written acceptance of concurrent
59 legislative jurisdiction.

60 3. A description by metes and bounds of the United States
61 military installation subject to the concurrent legislative 62 jurisdiction.

63 (5) Upon request by the United States through an 64 authorized representative, the Governor is authorized to execute 65 appropriate documents to accomplish the cession granted by this 66 section.

67 (6) Upon establishment of concurrent legislative 68 jurisdiction under this section, a state agency, local 69 government, or special district may enter a reciprocal agreement
70 with a United States agency to designate duties related to the 71 concurrent legislative jurisdiction between the parties.

72 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2026.
