ANALYSIS

EFFECT OF THE BILL:

The bill authorizes the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) to enter into interagency agreements with county tax collectors to allow tax collectors to enforce statutory provisions related to commercial driving schools. The interagency agreements may include, but are not limited to, grants of authority to the county tax collectors, or their agents, to do any of the following:

- Prohibit licensees operating commercial driving schools, and their agents, from entering upon the tax collector's premises except under specified circumstances.
- Prohibit conduct by licensees operating commercial driving schools, and their agents, which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit.
- Prohibit any transaction, practice, or course of business related to a commercial driving school which undermines the driver license issuance process.
- Require persons licensed to operate commercial driving schools, and their agents, to present certain documents upon the demand of a law enforcement officer, a DHSMV employee, or an employee of the tax collector.
- Enter the premises of a commercial driving school to ensure compliance with laws regulating commercial driving schools. (Section 1)

The effective date of the bill is July 1, 2026. (Section 2)

FISCAL OR ECONOMIC IMPACT:

STORAGE NAME: h0953c.TED

DATE: 2/16/2026

STATE GOVERNMENT:

DHSMV may experience a reduction in costs associated with enforcing commercial driving school regulations. However, the extent of any savings may depend on the number of interagency agreements the department enters into and the number of commercial driving schools impacted by such agreements.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT:

County tax collectors that enter into interagency agreements with DHSMV may incur indeterminate costs associated with enforcing regulations related to commercial driving schools. These costs could vary based on the scope of responsibilities and the number of commercial driving schools operating within the county.

RELEVANT INFORMATIONSUBJECT OVERVIEW:*Commercial Driving Schools

Commercial driving schools provide education related to driving skills, traffic laws, road safety, and substance abuse. They also teach behind-the-wheel skills for driving non-commercial vehicles to prepare drivers to take the Class E¹ skills test.²

Except for truck driving schools,³ the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) oversees and licenses all commercial driving schools.⁴ A person or entity may not operate a commercial driving school without first obtaining a license from DHSMV.⁵ To obtain a license, the applicant submits an application to DHSMV and if DHSMV approves the application, the applicant must pay the license fee. Once the license fee is paid, DHSMV then issues the appropriate license. A license for a commercial driving school is valid for one year from the date of issuance and is not transferable.⁶

Commercial Driving School Instructors, Agents, and Vehicles

A person may not be compensated for giving instructions on operating motor vehicles or act as a driving school instructor without first obtaining an instructor's certificate from DHSMV.⁷ An instructor's certificate is only valid in connection with the driving school or schools listed on the certificate or in connection with a driver education course offered by a district school board.⁸ Similarly, a person may not serve as an agent for a commercial driving school without first obtaining an agent identification card from DHSMV. An agent identification card is only valid in connection with the commercial driving school or schools listed on the card.⁹

A motor vehicle owned or controlled by a commercial driving school may not be used to give driving instructions until the licensee has obtained a school vehicle identification certificate from DHSMV. Such vehicles must also meet DHSMV's safety requirements.¹⁰

Application for a Class E Driver License

Current law requires DHSMV to examine every applicant for a driver's license. For a Class E driver license (the standard type of license for all non-commercial drivers), the examination must include:

- A test of the applicant's eyesight.

- A test of the applicant's ability to read and understand highway signs regulating, warning, and directing traffic; his or her knowledge of the traffic laws of this state.
