14 elections personnel. Supervisors will keep a record of all
15 personnel trained and authorized to verify citizenship.
16 Documentation submitted for purposes of verifying citizenship
17 shall be retained only as follows: copies of citizenship or 18 identification documents shall be retained only for the period
19 necessary to verify and the application and no more than 10 days 20 after the supervisor has made a final determination on the 21 applicant's eligibility, unless a challenge, appeal, or 22 investigation relating to the applicant's eligibility is 23 pending, in which case the documents may be retained until final 24 resolution of the matter. In no event shall such documents be 25 retained longer than 22 months after the date of submission.
26 Upon expiration of the applicable retention period, all physical 27 copies shall be destroyed by secure shredding, and all 28 electronic copies shall be permanently deleted in a manner that 29 renders the information unrecoverable. Once the application is 30 verified, the supervisor must document that the applicant
31 provided satisfactory evidence for proof of citizenship. The 32 Division of Elections shall develop and implement standardized
33 training for all state and local elections personnel responsible 34 for verifying evidence of citizenship status as well as document
35 retention and destruction under this subsection. An applicant
36 whose application does not meet the requirements of this 37 subsection is deemed an unverified voter until the requirements
38 have been met.
