PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Senator Yarborough:

Heavenly Father, good morning. Let us rejoice in this day you have made. Thank you for this day, Lord. We pray for continued wisdom and discernment in this budget process, and we pray for peace in that process as we continue to work on these important priorities for the people of our state.

Lord, please give our President wisdom, give the Speaker wisdom, give the Governor wisdom, and all of those who are involved in this process as we seek to finish up in a timely fashion. We give it to you, and we ask you for that wisdom, strength, discernment, and understanding. If we had all the answers, Lord, we wouldn't need you. We ask you to give us wisdom and help us Lord, in this process.

Lord, we want to lift up the family of John Thrasher, his wife Jean, and their family, and just ask for comfort for them at this very difficult time. We thank you for the service of Senator Thrasher, Speaker Thrasher, and so many other roles that he's served in, and pray your comfort for his family at this time. We also want to lift up our good Senate staffer and all-star photographer, Bettsy Mitchell, on the loss of her dad this morning, and pray your comfort for her and her family at this difficult time, Lord.

Thank you for loving us even though we don't deserve it. Thank you for saving us from our sins, Lord—if we would just believe on your son, Jesus Christ. We pray that we would do all for your glory, and we thank you again for this day. In Jesus' name, Amen.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Senator Polsky:

We are gathered here this afternoon for the sacred responsibility of considering the budget for the State of Florida. I am grateful and honored to serve my constituents alongside my respected colleagues. This week, I felt the weight of my role as one of two Jewish Senators in this body heavier than ever before.

As we all know, this past Sunday in Colorado, a man attacked a weekly organized peaceful walk, held in support of the remaining Israeli hostages, with a makeshift flamethrower and two incendiary devices, injuring 12. The victims identified so far have all been between the ages of 52 to 88, with injuries ranging from minor to severe. The oldest of the victims has been identified as Rabbi Israel Wilhelm, Holocaust survivor and Chabad Director at the University of Colorado Boulder. I ask you to keep this community and the injured in your prayers, as well as the two Israeli diplomatic staffers who were killed, Yaron Lischinsky and Sarah Milgrim.

It is heartbreaking for me to see the pain and fear this attack has created within my Jewish community at home. Our Jewish tradition calls us to be a light in the darkness, to confront hatred with justice, and to never stand silent in the face of cruelty. I will continue to remain outspoken and committed to advocating for what I know is right, both in the chamber and as a private Jewish citizen. I am grateful beyond words for the outpouring of support from our allies—friends from many faiths and walks of life—who have stood beside the Jewish community since October 2023, when the hostages were taken. May we work together to transform grief into action, and despair into hope, so that all our children may live in a world free of fear.

In honor of those injured, and to guide our body as we continue to work for the betterment of Florida, I offer the following Jewish prayer of healing, Mi Shebeirach:

Mi shebeirach avoteinu M'kor hab'rachah l'imoteinu

May the source of strength, Who blessed the ones before us, Help us find the courage to make our lives a blessing, and let us say, Amen.

Mi shebeirach imoteinu M'kor hab'rachah laavoteinu

Bless those in need of healing with r'fuah sh'leimah, The renewal of body, the renewal of spirit, And let us say, Amen.

PLEDGE
