Open the eyes and ears of our understanding, O God, to thy presence that we may enter into the fullness of life as creatures of thine, destined to some purpose in the world . . . whether it is great or small is of no consequence.

What IS important is that we do our best at the tasks before us. May we therefore be sobered by the thought of thee and encouraged by the knowledge that thou art ever by our side, to help us and give us the strength to do the things thou wouldest have us to do. Amen.

The Chaplain requested the Senate to stand in silent memoriam for the late Honorable David C. Anderson, member of the House of Representatives, who died in Gainesville at University Medical Center as a result of an automobile accident.
