Reapportionment Timeline 2011

- April 1, 2010: U.S. Census

- November 2010:
  - Florida apportioned 27 seats in U.S. House of Representatives (April 1, 2010 population including overseas is 18,900,773)

- January 25, 2011: Census TIGER map data published

- February 2011: District Builder (beta) online

- March 17, 2011: Census P.L. 94-171 population counts published (by county, VTD, tract, block, etc.; resident population for redistricting is 18,801,310)

- March 2011: District Builder version 2 online with proposed plans and 2010 Census data

- April 2011:
  - May 6, 2011: District Builder online with 2010 Census data (beta testing complete)
  - June 29, 2011: Mail overseas ballots
  - August 14, 2011: Primary Elections

- January 2012:
  - June 4-8, 2012: Qualifying for federal and state offices

- April 2012:
  - June 29, 2012: Mail overseas ballots

- May 2012:
  - September 21, 2012: Mail overseas ballots

- June 2012:
  - August 6, 2012: General Election

- July 2012:
  - June 4-8, 2012: Qualifying for federal and state offices

- August 2012:
  - September 22, 2012: Mail overseas ballots

- September 2012:
  - October 2012: Regular Session

- December 2012:
  - November 6, 2012: General Election

Revised 5/19/2011